

CHEROKEE ROSE QUILTERS GUILD
Minutes of the March Night Meeting, March 24, 2011
Submitted By Jeanne Andersen, Night Secretary

Broach called the meeting to order at 7:00 pm.
A motion was made and seconded to accept the minutes as reported.

TREASURER- There is $4053.66 cents in the account. There are several invoices to be paid at this time.

BEES- The last bee at Irene's house was great. She always provides a great time of socializing. And she showed her quilts.
The next bee will be at Joyce Hill's house. Please let her know if you plan to attend.

BIRTHDAYS- March birthdays were announced. Sandy Capazzi, Gail Ford, Diane Johnson, Annie Kellum, Rita Lee, and Bev Mahle. Please forgive any omissions.

COMMUNITY SERVICE- We are making small quilts for the Head Start Kids. Please have them finished by August. It would be great if you could make more than one!!

GOLDEN SCISSORS- Ann Groves showed the warm and fuzzy quilt she is making for her bed.

HOSPITALITY- If you want to eat or drink at the next meeting, bring something. For day meeting bring something that speaks of Easter.

LIBRARY- Broach donated a book, Cut the Scraps, by Joan Ford.

PROGRAMS- Tonight Robin guides us to create pins. Great sparkly, gaudy, sweet, colorful pins. What a wonderful experience. Thank you, Robin for all the wonderful items you shared with us to create these wonderful accessories.

APRIL DAY - Janet O'Brien will talk to us about needles and threads, and have a trunk show.

APRIL NIGHT- Jan Cunningham will share her trunk show.

MEMBERSHIP- There are 26 members present and 1 guest, Christine Summers.

DRAWINGS- the door prizes were won by Charlene Shanks, Charlie Phaneuf, Mary Graham, and the fat quarters were won by, Annie Kellum.

PUBLICITY- Most all the contacts have the new information about our location for meetings, and new business cards are on the way. The quilts will be changed at the hospital.

SUNSHINE- All calls were made. News: Queen had cataract surgery, and Eleanor asked for us to remember her son who is in critical condition after a car accident.

Linda Jones reported on the class with Karen Combs. IT was GREAT> They all reported that it was well worth it, and they learned a lot of new techniques.

IT was also reported that there is an opportunity to see some lovely quilts at the Marietta/Cobb Museum of Art./ March 19- May 15. The quilts are," The Best of the East Cobb Quilters' Guild." This is a grouping of the winners of the last 29 years.

Anyone who wants to make a strippy block with Broach. They are 13" squares of muslin with diagonal strips of fabric sewn to that. This will be made into a quilt for the community service project.

NEW BUSINESS- Charlene made a motion and it was seconded to change the amount of the fee from a quarter to $1.00 for missing nametags at meetings. The vote for the night meeting was : 11 YES and 13 NO

The motion will be presented to the day meeting for a vote in April.
