President's March Letter

Hello everyone,

Was I the only one disappointed that we did not receive snow? I love snow, we do not get enough if you ask me. The good side is we had our night meeting and enjoyed talking about different borders. The quilts that members brought as examples were all beautiful and had inspiring borders. Some had interesting stories they shared. We missed all who could not attend.

March will be busy with a workshop by Diane Knott of Butterfly Quilting. The teacher allowed participants to select the pattern they wanted and will include instruction for each in class. The sign up for this class has ended. But you can still attend the day meeting for skill building with Rachel Phaneuf. They will offer a dvd of the material covered, I love those so I can review the information as often as needed. Or the night meeting where we will enjoy Modern Quilting by Ali Winston. See you there.

I also wish a speedy recovery to our members who are ill or had recent surgery. And those who have had a tragedy in your family. You are included in our prayers daily. We miss you and hope to see you back soon.

Have a nice day!

Thank You
Tina Corbitt

Community Service

IT'S BABY QUILTS FOR 2015

Cherokee Rose, we voted to make baby quilts for the Birthing Center of Wellstar Douglas County Hospital.

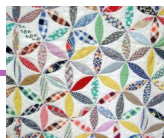

We plan to make and deliver 3 to 4 quilts per month, size at least 36" by 42". We want these quilts to fully wrap a baby and be fun for a toddler.

Please wash each quilt when you finish it, so that the babies are not exposed to the chemicals in new fabric. If you are unable to launder your donation, just let me (Emily) know and I will do it for you.

The vote between the baby quilts and the duffel bags for older CASA kids was very close (5 votes). Those who wish to contribute a duffel bag ( IN ADDITION TO THE BABY QUILT) are invited to do so. You can find duffel bag patterns by Googling "free duffel bag patterns". All community service projects can be turned in to Emily or Diane.

You voted to care for others, even the smallest. That's love. Thank you.

Emily Poole and Diane Johnson

CRQG Program News

The list of the 2015 programs, workshops, and Saturday Stitch-Ins are posted on the website.

Our Feb 12th day meeting was a presentation on hexagon quilts given by Julia Wood. Her blog is <http://thehexieblog.blogspot.com/>. If you missed the meeting here is some additional information on Julia Wood:

Her blog still has the free block of the month for 2014 available. There isn't a tab at the top but you can still find the blocks if you scroll through the beginning of each month of 2014. She is starting a new BOM for 2015.

She posted on her blog (Feb 13th) photos taken at our guild meeting. The quilt that Sandra Wilson is showing is her version of the 2014 BOM from the hexie blog. She donated a copy of her latest book to our library.

The March 12th day meeting program is a skill building program by Rachel Phaneuf. We will be viewing a DVD so there is no need to bring any sewing supplies. The meeting should be over by noon.

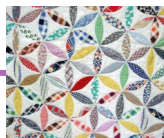

The March 26th night meeting program is a trunk show presented by Ali Winston. She has a blog about her work with modern quilting designs <http://www.asquaredw.com/>. She also has published a book Quilt Lab-The Creative Side of Science: 12 Clever Projects.

Don't forget to check out our website for upcoming programs, workshops and stitch-ins. We have our 25th anniversary celebration in June. Jodie Davis is presenting her quilt documenting project at the day meeting. Be sure to download the information and check out the video's that explain her project.

Diane Knott Saturday Workshop March 7th

Hunter Park Room 208 9AM-3PM

By the February 12th meeting we need members to sign up for our first Saturday workshop of the year. You can learn about Diane and see her patterns at <http://www.butterflythreadsquilting.com/>
