President's Letter

Hello Quilters,

Well we made it through Christmas in July. Some acquired a new ruler to make placemats and others learned to make an oval the DIY way to achieve the same outcome. Its great when the programs people can think outside the box so more members can participate. You are appreciated. And Quilts and Fixins brought some great Christmas projects to get us started for the holidays. Many found just the right fabric or ruler, sometimes both. You know who I am talking about, HEHE. I bought a panel and fat quarter bundle but I may have to visit Jonesboro to get some matching yardage. Road trip!

Come join us for the daytime class and make some wine glass coasters and Octagon centerpieces. I would like to make the coasters for stocking stuffers. They would make a great gift for my daughter who enjoys a glass of wine. And maybe include a matching centerpiece. We will see. And if you did not get a chance to participate in the "Go tell your story" for the Quilt Alliance or you have another story to tell come to the night meeting. Charlie will be recording the stories and sending them in. We really enjoyed the stories that have already been submitted. Its fun, you should try it.

Don't forget to work on you challenge quilt, its just around the corner.

Have a nice day.

Tina Corbitt

Challenge Quilt

In the spirit of the movie, Christmas Story, I DOUBLE DOG DARE all of you to participate in the Challenge Quilt. The rules are few and easy to let your imagination run wild. Check the website for details, put on your thinking cap and have a good time!

September 24, is the deadline.

Dori 404-786-7346.

Community Service

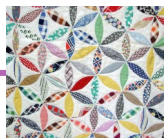

CUTE!

Have you seen the TV program, Too Cute? Cherokee Rose, you found cute! The babies who receive your quilts will see frogs, horses, fuzzy monsters, bears, monkeys, mice, and bunnies.

They will be delighted by fish, stars, sunny faces, storks, and happy babies almost as adorable as they are. They will learn flowers, color, softness, texture, lines and circles. Are we preparing future quilters?

As always, the staff at the Birthing Center say, "Thank you very much." So do we.

Emily and Diane

CRQG Program News

Our August 13th day meeting will be a class on making wine glass coasters and octagon centerpieces taught by Annie Kellum and Linda Jones. To make the coasters you will need six- 5" squares of fabric. To make an octagon centerpiece bring a fat quarter of focus fabric, batting, and backing, along with assorted scraps for trims. Please bring your sewing machine and your usual sewing supplies including a small cutting mat and a rotary cutter. We plan to stay and sew until 3PM, so bring lunch.

Program Change: The August 27th night program has been changed to videotaping quilters and their quilts. These tapes will be sent to the Quilt Alliance for their website. Please make plans to participate by bringing that special quilt you own and be prepared to tell us briefly the story of the quilt.

Deadlines coming soon:

August 15th is the deadline for ordering the Diamond Rects ruler ($23) and Sea glass pattern from Pickleweeds. You will receive a 20% discount on the ruler and get the pattern for a discounted price of $7. The class is on September 10th. If you plan to participate send Denise Allee an email. She needs an estimate of how many students will be sewing that day.

Our last Saturday workshop of the year is September 19th, 9AM-2PM. This is a thread painting workshop taught by Ruth Ann Yax. The cost is $25. We still have 3 openings in the class. The deadline for paying is the August 27th night meeting.

Cherokee Rose Quilters Guild Minutes Night Meeting, July 23, 2015

Tina called the meeting to order at 7:00PM. (After she was able to get everyone to stop shopping from the array of goodies from Quilts 'N Fixins). July birthdays were recognized and the minutes from the newsletter were approved as printed.

Treasurer - July beginning balance $7,259.35. Deposits $318.00. Expenditures $540.87. Current Balance $7056.48.

Bee Keeper - It was a light turn out at Pickleweeds. The August Bee will be at Awilda's on Aug 20. If things change it will be at Pickleweeds.

Christmas Party - The committee has a workshop planned for August 1.

Challenge Quilt - As at the day meeting, the infamous "Double Dog Dare You" was presented to the membership to get 100% participation.

Community Service - Emily shared that she spoke with a few of the nurses at the birthing center at Wellstar. The baby quilts have been a huge success and so appreciated by those who have received them. Emily also asked that before applying your binding that you stay stitch about 1/8 inch around the perimeter. This helps stabilize the quilt when it is laundered for the first time.

Georgia Quilt Council - Some openings are still available, but check with GQC website for actual availability and details.

Golden Scissors - Anyone who had a quilt to show was asked to sign in.

Historian - No Report

Librarian - No Report

Membership - 27 members and 1 visitor were present. Door prize winners were Jennie Hollis, Emily Poole, Annie Kellum and Robin Meyer.

Newsletter - Deadline for articles and reports is 12:00 noon on Aug 25. If you are unable to make the deadline, please call Caryl to let her know.

Photographer - Charlie was unavailable, so Dawn Fiest stepped up for the night.

Programs - Linda Jones reviewed upcoming programs. August 13, day meeting will be a sew day. Linda will be teaching how to make octagons place mats, and Annie Kellum will be teaching how to make wine glass/cup coasters. If you are unable to make the day meeting, call Linda Jones & she can get a handout with instructions to you. Check the newsletter for list of supplies. August 27, Charlie will be videotaping members with their favorite quilt and it's story for the Quilt Alliance. September day meeting will also be a sew day using the Diamond Rects ruler for the Sea Grass pattern. August 15, is the deadline to pay for the ruler and pattern and receive a discount on them from Pickleweeds.

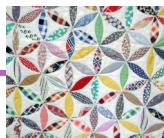

Publicity - No Report

Saturday Stitch In - November 14, 9:00AM-9:00PM. Bring your lunch and a covered dish for dinner. A list will be going around at a later date to sign up for the covered dishes. For scheduling purposes, with Hunter Park, Tina asked if members prefer February to April for the first Saturday Stitch In. Most found February favorable.

Sunshine - Bonnie McLain pulled a muscle in her hip. Irene asked if you know of someone who can use some "sunshine" to please let her know.

Telephone - Calls were made.

Ways and Means - A jelly roll with 3 coordinating charm packs was raffled off. Emma reminded members to buy a $5.00 ticket to have edge to edge quilting up

Ways and Means - A jelly roll with 3 coordinating charm packs was raffled off. Emma reminded members to buy a $5.00 ticket to have edge to edge quilting up to a queen size, done by one of our "longarmers".

R'auction Robin Meyer went over some items for R'auction. Items to bring include cotton fabric, notions, nick-knacks (sewing), books etc. Items should be in good condition. If you wouldn't buy it (because of condition), please don't donate it. Please do not bring double knit polyester. Any magazines brought will be set out for free, but please try to keep them to a minimum. Also, if you have boxes or box tops (approx. 18x24x3, as a guide), please bring those as well. Paula Miller has graciously offered to store the items for R'auction until that day. So, clear out your sewing room to make room for something else! Any questions, please call Robin Meyer.

New Business - Broach discussed the project "Dress A Girl Around The World". She has patterns and information available if you would like to participate. There will be a sewing dates set aside at Pickleweeds for a "workshop" to make these dresses in August. Call Broach 404-625-7870 or Bonnie McLain 609-688-3720 for more info.

Dress-A-Girl-Around-The-World

www.DRESSAGIRLAROUNDTHEWORLD.COM

This is a project of Hope 4 Women, an organization that provides simple pillowcase like dresses for girls around the world. The website has patterns, instructions and tips. They have delivered 300,000 dresses to 81 countries. It takes about a yard of fabric, 15" of elastic, and about an hour to an hour and a half of your time. We have a roll of 144 yards and we have labels to sew on the front of the dresses in an effort to keep predators away from the girls.

Joany is giving us use of Pickleweeds' classroom to make dresses the week of August 17-22. If ladies are planning to come, please sign up for the day/s coming since she only has 8 seats available. Joany will offer a discount on fabric purchased for the dresses. Lastly, a reminder that if anyone is making dresses at home, they can drop them off at the shop anytime during that week in August.

Shortened directions are available on our website. There will be ladies available to help you with the dresses. Bonnie McLain, Broach Winsley, and Terry Tinsley and Jill Stroer will have sergers available for the seams.

Call Broach Winsley 404 625 7870 or Bonnie McLain 609 688 3720 for more info.
