President's Letter

Hello Quilters,

Only 7 people participated in the challenge but the ones who did really stepped up to the plate as usual. Congratulations to the winners! Thank you to everyone for sharing your creativity. And now its time to move on to the Rauction! Its not too late to donate fabric and other quilting goodies. Bring them to the day meeting or to the park at 10:00 the day of the Rauction. If you loved it we will probably buy it. LOL. Who knows we may even buy back our own fabric. HAHA! Be there at 6:30 for the meeting and we will start the Rauction immediately afterwards. We will not have show and tell or ways and means available. Only time for bidding.

The October day meeting has changed to a demonstration of wedge rulers and there uses. Come to the meeting and learn something new, you may go shopping for a wedge ruler!

And last but not least I enjoyed the Saturday workshop of thread painting. The teacher, Ruth Ann Yax, helped me choose the perfect flower on my fabric so I was able to finish my project. Everyone was challenged, some may try it again, others decided this was enough. But everyone went away with a new experience. Smile.

See you at the Rauction!

Have a nice day

Tina Corbitt

Challenge Quilt 2015

Seven of our members met the Challenge and created beautiful quilts celebrating the 25th Anniversary of Cherokee Rose Quilters Guild. Thank you to those who participated, and thank you to all of you who voted for your favorite. The creativity expressed was amazing, to say the least. Make sure you check out the photos on the website.

1st Place - Albertha Brown uniquely recognized CRQG members, past and present, with her entry.

2nd Place - Irene Gardner created a cake that looked good enough to eat!

3rd Place - Annie Kellum gave us a taste of Hawaii on one side of her quilt and a lovely tribute to CRQG on the other side.

Community Service

YOUR SACRIFICE

Each guild member has a career. We work to live in community, whether as a neighbor, family member, or in a business. When we are tired from our work, why do we do more work planning, cutting and reassembling fabric?

What we do is art, release, therapy, obsession. The process of making a quilt is personal. Somehow this is communicated to non-quilters. They seem almost worshipful as they think about, see, and touch quilts.

You have given away this thing that evokes memories and emotion. You have given this treasure to the smallest in our community. Thank you for your sacrifices, Cherokee Rose.

Emily

Ways and Means

Greetings from Ways and Means.

Ways and Means would like to thank each and everyone for your support. Without your support we would not be as successful as we have been this year. THANK YOU!

Winners from our night drawing: Jill Stroer—ruler bag, Bonnie McLain—Fabric Kit and large ruler donated by Broach Winsley.

Raffle at October Day Meeting—long arm quilting, one fabric box and another ruler bag.

Don't forget to purchase your tickets for the beautiful quilt rack donated by Jack and Diane Johnson and the Thanksgiving Fairy wreath made by Rita Perez.

Sure would look nice on your front door this Fall.

WAYS AND MEANS-Albertha is now selling tickets to win a beautiful Wooden Quilt Rack and an Autumn wreath for your home as new items.

RAUCTION-Robin Meyer presented information regarding the R’auction to our new members present. Please remember to continue to save those items that you would like to donate and bring them to the October Day Meeting. The committee is in need of flat boxes (i.e. flats that hold soft drinks). Items may also be brought to Hunter Park on Thursday, October 22 by 10:00 am. Thank you to Paula Miller for providing storage for our event. The Business Meeting will begin at 6:30 that evening in order to give us more time. Also, members are encouraged to arrive by 6:00 to preview the merchandise that you want to make a bid.

NEW BUSINESS-Tina presented that our rent at the park will increase for using the ballroom on Saturday to $550.00 per event. Tina asked for members to contact her if they know of a church, school, etc. that we can rent for a lower fee. Discussion was held.

Respectfully submitted,

Libby Armstrong

CRQG Program News

Our next two day meeting programs are:

Our October 8th program will be presented by Angela Gubler from the Green Apricot Blog. She runs an online store, teaches quilting and more. She will be demonstrating all of the different types of wedge rulers and their uses. She will also bring items from her store to sell at a 15% discount. She will take charge cards, checks, or cash. If you would like to learn more about her, visit her blog listed below.

<http://thegreenapricot.com/>

The Nov 12th program is the Bargello Christmas Tree class taught by Sarah Sorenson. If you haven't picked up your pattern yet, Linda Jones will have them at the next meeting for $8.25. Sarah is encouraging all participants to do some precutting and organization ahead of time. She would like for us to be to the sewing steps on the day of class. All of her directions are in her handout which is included in this newsletter. We plan to stay and sew until 3PM.

Christmas Party—December 3rd

Atlanta's Finest @ 6p.m.

The Rauction is Coming!!

The famous Cherokee Rose Rauction will be October 22nd and it will be great once again! Here are some FAQs to help you plan for this event:

What is the Rauction? It's a combination Raffle and Auction of quilting supplies, fabric, UFOs and similar items donated by Cherokee Rose members and friends. You can buy raffle tickets for some items and also bid on box lots and individual items.

What donations are wanted? Quilt-shop-quality fabrics, notions, patterns and books, sewing machines, lights, quilt racks, quilts, UFOs (from blocks to quilt tops), and anything else that we would use to make quilts. Please do not donate miscellaneous scraps, polyester or knit fabrics, or magazines.

When can I make my donation? At every meeting between now and October 22nd - someone will take your items and we will store them until the big day. If you can't make the meeting and have a donation, please contact me.

Who can attend the Rauction? All members and guests! We are happy to share our bounty with nonmembers!

What is the range of bids? Some items start at $1, others higher - it's up the auctioneers!

What payments are accepted? Cash and personal checks.

Who gets the proceeds? The Guild receives all the money raised from the Rauction and it's a major source of revenue for our programs and other activities.

What can I do to help? #1 - clean out your sewing room and donate that stuff you will never get around to using! #2 - collect cardboard boxes for us 12" x 18" x 3" or a little larger (like the kinds that 6-packs of canned drinks come in) #3 - help organize the box lots for the auction during the day on October 22nd (contact me if you can help) #4 - come to the Rauction and BID, BID, BID!!!

More questions? Contact Robin Meyer at robinmeyerga@yahoo.com!

Come early, doors will be open at 5:30pm.

"Preview" the items and record the box numbers you're interested in bidding on.

The Night Meeting will start early at 6:30pm.
