From the President

Hello Quilters,

Hope everyone is doing well. As we wrap up summer we begin our Fall and some Christmas projects in anticipation of the holidays. Have fun and sew, sew, sew.

The September day meeting presented by Annie Kellum and Ramona Tucker was a fall placemat. This project used gridded interfacing to make a pumpkin placemat. But as seen at the night meeting it could also be a wall hanging. An easy way to make a project with small precut squares, use your imagination.

The night meeting with the yearly challenge quilt competition was a huge success. In the two categories, traditional and artistic, there were 19 entries. More than we have had in several years. I enjoyed making an entry even if I lost a lot of sleep. My tree will have a new skirt and I had the opportunity to use my wedge ruler purchased at an earlier meeting this year. I was pleased that all the fabric came from my stash. Yeeha!

In October Tom and Rose McCowan will teach a table runner class. The class will be a group of 10 or less but everyone else can still bring your machine and sew on the sidelines. The pattern is $5.00. See additional information on the pages that follow.

And last but not least is our biggest yearly money maker, the Rauction! Whatever fabric you used this year-- maybe this is the opportunity to replace it. It appears that most people will bring their donations the day of the Rauction as Paula only has two boxes stored at the moment. So everyone, please donate that fabric you purchased but probably will not use. And sewing notions that any quilter could use and be excited to bid on. See you there and bring your checkbook, LOL.

Have a nice day, and thank you!

Tina

PROGRAM NEWS

October 13th Day

Meeting — The program is a sit and sew program with Tom and Rose McCowen. Tom has drafted an original paper piecing pattern for our guild, Flies in the Barn. Everyone who signed up for a copy of the pattern needs to bring their $5, to the meeting to purchase the pattern. Some of you have already given Annie your money ahead of time, thank you!

At the beginning of the lesson, Tom will give us his advice on how to be successful at paper piecing. Those of us who wish to sit and sew need read the pre-cutting directions we handed out at the meetings which are also posted on our web site. A photo of the project is also on the web site. Bring the usual sewing supplies for paper piecing including a small cutting mat and ironing surface. We plan to stay and sew until 3PM, so bring your lunch.

October 27th Night Meeting — The Rauction!! See the next page for more information!

November 10th Day Meeting — Hand Piecing program led by Doreen Thornton. Supplies will be provided (you may want to bring a small pair of scissors for cutting thread) All hand sewing — no machines needed!

Linda Jones and the Program Committee

PROGRAM NEWS

The Rauction is Coming!! The famous Cherokee Rose Rauction will be October 20th and it will be great once again! Here are some FAQs to help you plan for this event:

What is the Rauction? It's a combination Raffle and Auction of quilting supplies, fabric, UFOs and similar items donated by Cherokee Rose members and friends. You can buy raffle tickets for some items and also bid on box lots and individual items.

What donations are wanted?

Quilt-shop-quality fabrics, notions, patterns and books, sewing machines, lights, quilt racks, quilts, UFOs (from blocks to quilt tops), and anything else that we would use to make quilts. Please do not donate miscellaneous small scraps, polyester or knit fabrics, or magazines.

When can I make my donation?

At every meeting between now and October 22nd – someone will take your items and we will store them until the big day.

Who can attend the Rauction? All members and guests! We are happy to share our bounty with non-members! What is the range of bids? Some items start at $1, others higher – it's up to the auctioneers!

What payments are accepted? Cash and personal checks.

Who gets the proceeds? The Guild receives all the money raised from the Rauction and it's a major source of revenue for our programs and other activities.

What can I do to help?

- ⇒ #1 – clean out your sewing room and donate that stuff you will never get around to using!
- ⇒ #2 – collect cardboard boxes for us 12" x 18" x 3" or a little larger (like the kinds that 6-packs of canned drinks come in)
- ⇒ #3 – help organize the box lots for the auction during the day on October 20th
- ⇒ #4 – come to the Rauction and BID, BID, BID!!!

Saturday Stitch-In

Saturday, November 12, 2016

9am to 9pm

First United Methodist on Priestley Mill across from hospital

Just $10 for a whole day of sewing with friends old and new! Bring all your projects, your machine and maybe an extension cord, too.

Come when you can, leave when you must!

For more information, contact Ann Groves at 770.827.9935.

Sunshine

Denise Allee's mother fell and broke her hip a few days ago, had surgery and is on the mend.

Bonnie McLain's husband has a cyst on his kidney and is scheduled for surgery soon.

Jennie Hollis' grandson is fighting a serious and very stubborn kidney infection.

Christmas Party

Can you believe that Christmas and our Guild party is just around the corner? We are so pleased that the menu has been set and includes all your holiday favorite with a few surprises. There will be food, fun, a gift or two and a few door prizes thrown in as well. The ticket are only $20 for the entire meal and evening of fun. Just a reminder, the date is December the 8th at 6 PM at Atlanta's Finest in Winston. (Just about 4 miles from our regular meeting place.)

Currently we are happy to present to you a beautiful raffle item for your Christmas table. This lovely topper has been donated by Sarah Sorenson. Made of silk and embroidery, the raffle tickets are only $3.00. You can buy the tickets at any regular meeting and the winner will be drawn at the November night meeting, that way you can display it for the entire season. (This picture is only a portion of the whole beauty!!!)

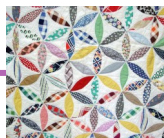

Rachel and Charlie Phaneuf

Community Service

I would like to thank all who provided quilts for Community Service. At this time, I have about 50 quilts for the hospital. I have been providing 4 quilts per month. After December, I will no longer be the Community Service Chairperson. At this time, I have enough quilts for the remainder of the year. Thank you so much for your generosity.
