From the President

Hello Quilters,

I hope everyone has a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. A celebration of the birth of Jesus Christ and love for family and friends. The festivities start at the guild Christmas party December 8 at 6:00 pm at Atlanta's Finest. Come and spend time with quilting friends and enjoy a great meal. Try to purchase tickets ahead of time or communicate with Rachel about your intent to purchase at the party. See you there!

Our new year will bring changes to some leadership positions and committees. I am happy we have a full cabinet of officers to start a great new year. Thanks to everyone who made my job easy and fairly stress free. Thank You to the officers for 2016: Libby Armstrong, Vice President, Broach Winsley, Day Secretary, Denise Adams, Night Secretary and Loretta Ford, Treasurer.

In 2017 I am passing the presidential torch to Charlie Phaneuf and trying my hand at programs. I appreciate any and all help with this endeavor. Please email me with your ideas and contacts for programs you have heard good things about. And consider offering your knowledge in some form for a program or trunk show. Guild volunteers help us stay in our budget. Let me know.

Thank You,

Tina Corbitt

PROGRAM NEWS

The January 12th day program will be presented by Doreen Thornton. Watch your email for details.

Our January 26th night program is a group effort! Bring your oldest quilt and newest quilt and share them with the group. Let's start off the new year with learning more about each other and learning from each other.

Tina Corbett, Program Committee—2017

Annie Kellum has the corrected patterns from the October day meeting's paper piecing class. She will bring them to the Christmas Party. You can also call Annie at 770-851-1096 to make other arrangements.

Saturday Stitch-In

Mark your calendars for 2017 !!

Saturdays, February 11, May 20 and November 11.

Watch the newsletter for information or contact Ann Groves.

Sunshine

Carol Knox has a son who needs prayers for a full recovery from his leg operation.
Bonnie McLain's husband Mike had surgery November 21st; he needs prayers too.
Linda Mikos is on the mend from her rotator cuff surgery.
Charlie Phaneuf is recovering nicely from his hospital stay.
Jennie's grandson John is fully recovered from his infection too.

Be sure to contact me if you know any members who need a little Sunshine in their life.

Community Service

Quilts have once again been delivered to the hospital. I will make an additional delivery prior to Christmas. The new Mothers truly appreciate the quilts and the generosity of the guild members.

Quilts are no longer needed as I have more than enough to complete this year and part of next year.

Happy Thanksgiving and a Merry Christmas to everyone.

Emma Parker

Christmas Party

We are going to have fun, entertainment, and lots of presents and prizes at our Christmas Party on Thursday, December 8th at 6 PM.

Cherokee Rose Quilters Guild Minutes Day Meeting, November 10, 2016

Libby called the meeting to order at 9:30 A.M.

Minutes were approved as written in the newsletter, and November birthdays were recognized.

Treasurer: Balance is $5787.38. Complete details in the newsletter.

Photographer: All photos have been forwarded to Joany.

Bee Keeper: October bee was successful. Members are encouraged to sign up for 2017. January bee will be at Irene Gardner's.

Christmas Party: December 8, 6:00 P.M. at Atlanta's Finest. Rachel said we will be "looking at Christmas in a different way". Raffle tickets are for sale $3 each for a beautiful silk wall hanging made by Sarah Sorenson.

Programs: Doreen Thornton will be teaching hand piecing today. November 17, Angela Goober from the Green Apricot will be here to tell us what she discovered from her trip to the Quilt Market. She will also have some prizes!

Sunshine: Charlie is feeling better. Caryl Knox's son, Jason and daughter, Brandi are both recovering. Caryl Knox is scheduled to have surgery December 2.

Ways and Means: Patti said to buy your raffle tickets. She's trying to "clear things out".

Saturday Stitch In: Handouts are available with time, place etc.

Membership: 23 members present. Door prize winners were Barbara Stephens, Jill Strorer and Irene Gardner.

New Business: Libby addressed the membership about the need for a President and Vice President to guide the guild in 2017, and the need for people to step up for the Programs committee. After discussions, Charlie Phaneuf volunteered for President, and Emma Parker volunteered for Vice President. Ballots were passed out, marked, and collected. Members are encouraged to contact Doreen Thornton if they are interested in doing a program or helping on the committee.

Discussions were also held about 2017 rent, possible alternate meeting places, etc. Emily Poole put forward a motion to appoint 2 people to find complete information about the rent at Hunter Park. The motion was seconded and passed. Libby said we currently have someone working on that, but the motion made it official.

Meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Dori Holt (for Broach Winsley)

Cherokee Rose Quilters Guild Minutes

Night Meeting, November 17, 2016
