From the President

Happy Quilters,

WOW! I hope you enjoyed the month of August at the Guild. It has been a month of busy quilting fun for Rachel and myself.

We started with a great trunk show with Jan Cunningham and her daughter. The quilts were great and we had the privilege to go to lunch with the both ladies and had a great time getting to know them a little better.

The evening meeting with Mary Abreu, made me happy to see that there was someone else who did not want to have the typical center to a log cabin block. The “fussy cut” and larger centers was a hit for me.

And, right in the center of the month we all had a great time at the Bee hosted by our friend Awilda Cruz. GREAT JOB AWILDA!

September has a great deal in store as well. There is fun time with “pears” at the Day Program with Ramona, Annie and Albertha. Then there will be the Challenge Quilt at the night meeting. And . . . don’t forget the Bee at Terry Tinsley’s home. Busy, Busy month!

Libby Armstrong and Jill Stroer, is our Nominating Committee, are going to be helping us to fill the empty few slots left in the list 2018 officers and committee heads. Please consider being a part of the group that make the guild run. The hard jobs are already spoken for; Ramona Tucker has volunteered to run for president and Emma Parker is willing to continue as our vice-president. YEAH!

One more thing, let me encourage you to share your quilts that express the September theme, which is – Laboring (work, school and babies).

Until next time, as Rachel says, “Happy Quilting”.

Charlie

Program News

The September day program will be a Collage Class that will be presented by several of our own members, Ramona Tucker, Annie Kellum and Albertha Brown. Don't forget to bring your completed homework and supplies to the day meeting on Sept. 14. This is a "machine-free-stress-free" class.... what could be better than that?

The September night program are the Challenge Quilts. Hope you are ready! Diamonds, diamonds and more diamonds, that is the theme for this year. Hope to see a quilt from everyone.

The October day program will be a Modern Quilting lecture by Andi Barney from the Red Hen Stitch shop. Andi was here in February presenting a sewing machine lecture.

The October night meeting will be our yearly money maker, The Rauction!!! See the next page for details!

Tina Corbitt, Program Committee

Christmas Party News

The Christmas Party is approaching! This year's get together is Thursday, December 7, 6:00 pm at Atlanta's Finest. This is an open event, family and friends are invited. Each plate is $20.00. We will have the sign-up sheet at each meeting or you can contact a committee member if needed. This is a wonderful opportunity to get to know fellow guild members, introduce others to our quilting community, and wrap up the year enjoying the season with kindred spirits. Join us in making this annual event special.

The Rauction is Coming in October!

The Cherokee Rose Rauction will be our night meeting program, October 26th. Here are some FAQs to help you plan for this event:

- ✂ What is the Rauction? It's a combination Raffle and Auction of quilting supplies, fabric, UFOs and similar items donated by Cherokee Rose members and friends. You can buy raffle tickets for some items and also bid on box lots and individual items.
- ✂ What donations are wanted? Quilt-shop-quality fabrics, notions, patterns, books, sewing machines, lights, quilt racks, quilts, UFOs (from blocks to quilt tops), and anything else that we would use to make quilts. Please do not donate polyester or knit fabrics, and magazines.
- ✂ When can I make my donations? At every meeting between now and October 12th Day Meeting – someone will take your items and store them until the big day. Arrangements can also be made to bring early on the morning of the Rauction.
- ✂ Who can attend the Rauction? All members and guests! We are happy to share our bounty with nonmembers!
- ✂ What payments are accepted? Cash and personal checks.
- ✂ Who gets the proceeds? The Guild receives all the money raised from the Rauction. It's a major source of revenue for our programs and other activities.
- ✂ What can I do to help?
  - #1 - Clean out your sewing room and donate that stuff you will never get around to using!
  - #2 - collect cardboard boxes for us 12" x 18" x 3" or a little larger (like the kinds that 6- packs of canned drinks come in)
  - #3 – Help organize the box lots for the auction during the day on October 26th
  - #4 – Come to the Rauction and BID, BID, BID!!!

Jeanne Andersen, 2017 Rauction Committee

Community Service

You members keep on giving! I am so thrilled with the quilts and pillow cases I received from the two meetings in July! You all continue to amaze me with your generosity. I am so proud to deliver these gifts to the Shelter. I took some children's cases and quilts last week! They were thrilled!

We have a good "stash" of adult cases and need more of the small ones for the wee little ones! Of course, we need quilts of any size! If you have adult cases, please continue and bring them but if you are just starting ones, concentrate on the little ones!

Again, thanks to all who have given so much! You are the best!

Bonnie McLain

Sunshine

Everyone must be fine, as I haven't heard about anyone needing sunshine!

If any members need to contact me, I can be reached by email (i.gardner@comcast.net) or by cell phone (770 354-4874).

Irene Gardener

Bee News

The Bee will be at the home of
Terry Tinsley

On September 21 at 9:30am.
Everyone is welcome.
Lunch will be served.

7080 Roselake Circle
Douglasville 30134

Please RSVP by calling
Terry at 770 949-2289

2017 Challenge Diamonds are a Girl's Best Friend

Our next night meeting in September is the quilt challenge. We are encouraging everyone to join in on the fun and participate! All of the rules for our "Diamonds are a Girl's Best Friend" challenge are located on the guild's web site.

We have a few last minute guidelines for the night of the challenge:

- ◇ If you have your name on the quilt label, please cover it with a piece of masking or painter's tape.
- ◇ Decide ahead of time which category you want your project entered in: Artistic or Traditional
- ◇ If you make more than one project, have an incomplete project, or have a project that fits the theme but is an older item: We will have a table tagged "Show and Tell" for these items.
- ◇ Your project must be completed to be entered in the contest.

We have ribbons and money for prizes. We also would like to display all projects at the main Douglasville library on Selman Drive during the month of October. This gives our guild an excellent opportunity to show off our creativity to the community.

Linda Jones and Albertha Brown

Cherokee Rose Quilters Guild Minutes

Day Meeting, August 10, 2017

Emma called the meeting to order. Motion to approve July minutes made by Albertha, seconded by Ramona. Recognized August birthdays. Treasurer's Report: balance of $5,702.81 as printed in the newsletter.

Committee Reports

Beekeeper: Annie reported that August bee will be at Awilda's home. Lunch will be served.

Challenge Quilts: Linda Jones reported that this year's theme is "Diamonds Are a Girl's Best Friend." Details are on the website. There will be ribbons and money prizes. The challenge quilts will be displayed at the library in October.

Community Service: Bonnie thanked everyone for participating in the community service project. Stated that we are concentrating on children's pillowcases and quilts of any size at this time.

Historian/Photographer: Rachel reported that pictures are on the website.

Newsletter: Emma reminded us that the deadline for the September issue is the Sunday following the evening meeting.

Programs: Annie reported that today's program is "Confessions of an ADD Quilter" by Jan Cunningham. The August night meeting will be a log cabin demo. The September day meeting will be a collage quilt technique class taught by Ramona. We will create a pear wall hanging in class. No sewing machine needed.

Sunshine: Irene reported that former member Dorene Bickford's husband is in the hospital and has had two surgeries and her daughter has a blood clot. Linda reported that Joan Hardy's husband had surgery.

Membership: Denise reported that we have 72 members on roll. Today we had 32 members and 4 visitors in attendance. Door prizes given.

Ways & Means: Rita said that they would draw today for raffle items. There are new items on the table to be raffled off later.

Rauction: Jeanne reminded us that the Rauction is coming up October 26th. Clean out your sewing rooms.

Old Business: Charlie announced that Libby and Jill are the Nominating Committee for 2018 officers.

Meeting was adjourned for Show and Tell and the program.

Respectfully submitted,
Sandra Wilson, Day Secretary
