From the President

Hello Fellow Quilters,

October has been a great month! I have enjoyed seeing several “Fall Colored” quilts at the Day Meeting. The Show and Tell theme for November is “Bountiful Harvest” which will give you an opportunity to share your quilts with theme like grain, corn, pumpkins, cornucopia, and of course Thanksgiving.

We have a full slate of officers for the 2018-year for the Guild. Members will have the privilege to vote for these wonderful volunteers at our Day and Evening November meetings.

The R’Action was a GREAT success! It was because of the MANY, MANY, MANY donations of our wonderful members. I also want to thank Jeannie Andersen and her many helpers. Dori Holt did a great job as our auctioneer. And, for those of you who invited guests, you helped to push us to a record success.

The Christmas Party is just around the corner on December 7th. Make sure to see a member of the Christmas Party Committee to sign up and to pay your $20 for a fabulous time of food and fun.

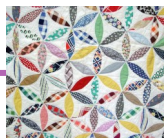

As Rachel says,

HAPPY QUILTING

Program News

The November day program (Nov. 9th) will be Quilted Postcards with Danielle Morgan. These are quilts that can be mailed! If you've ever wanted to send a quilt to someone but couldn't imagine spending the next 3 weeks, 3 months or 3 years making a quilt, then a postcard might be the PERFECT project for you. The fun of making a postcard quilt is that you can play with things you're not sure you'd want to make 12 blocks of, or a machine quilting attempt you're not sure you can manage, or a test of fabrics you're not sure will work together. It's easy and less expensive than the Hallmark greeting cards you can buy.

Inspiration? There are great books on postcard making you can go online and search "fabric postcard" and select "images" rather than "web". If you don't get at least 200 pictures to look at, then you can come to check out Danielle's Pinterest pages:

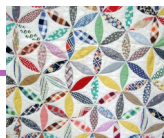

<https://www.pinterest.com/pixietoesga/postcards-made-by-me/>

<https://www.pinterest.com/pixietoesga/postcard-possibilities/>

Supply list:

- ☉ Sewing machines
- ☉ Regular sewing supplies (thread, scissors, ruler, cutter, board, etc.)
- ☉ One or two irons and boards.
- ☉ A few spools of colorful threads.
- ☉ Scrap fabric for both backgrounds and features. (Doesn't have to be a lot. Think 2-3 postcards.)
- ☉ If you have fabric with kid designs or other types of novelty prints bring them along.
- ☉ One box of freezer paper should serve the whole group.
- ☉ WonderUnder or other fusible is encouraged, or a glue stick.
- ☉ Optional: orphan blocks, lace, ribbon, buttons or other decorative trims. DON'T feel you need to go shopping.
- ☉ Batting and card backs will be supplied in the class.

The November night meeting (Nov 16) will be "What's New at Market" by Angela Gubler. Always a great time to see what's new and buy something you may not have seen to the quilt shops.

The R'auction Was A Big Success!

What a wonderful evening for the Rr'auction this year! We had lots of help setting it up and it was well attended. Everyone deserves a big cheer for all the cooperation for set up and clean up. Thank you to everyone for working together so well. We made nearly $2000.00!!

Thanks to everyone who participated. Bravo for a job well done!
