2018 PRESIDENT'S AWARDS NIGHT

We had our first Awards Night Program in conjunction with Round Robin TIDBITS. It was a big night for me as I had planned it for a good while. The awards consisted of PAST, PRESENT, and FUTURE. The service awards were limited and I truly agonized in the selections. Here is the rundown:

PAST: President Award Pin: Charlie Phaneuf;

Service Award Appreciation to Linda Jones for her years of dedication to Programs

PRESENT and/or FUTURE: Service Pins awarded to a cross-section of folks who stepped up to positions that remained vacant: Terri Tinsley, Libby Armstrong, Annie Kellum, Jeanne Anderson, Paula Miller, Broach Winsley, Albertha Brown, Loretta Ford, Emma Parker, Denise Adams and Sandra Wilson FYI: Denise and Sandra record our minutes with an extraordinary accuracy of 99.9 percent.

ENGRAVED AWARDS : Paul Feist and Charlie Phaneuf for their tireless and quiet work behind the scenes.

CRYSTAL ENGRAVED ACHIEVEMENT AWARD TROPHIES: I wanted to honor the two ladies (still members) who were founders and/or charter member of our Cherokee Rose Quilt Guild: IRENE GARDNER and PATTI HOWELL. Because of them, we are still gathering, learning and growing. What a great guild.

The night was planned around these ladies but it was also to celebrate the entire membership and show my appreciation for EVERYONE in EVERY position. There were refreshments and so many prizes to be won and it was just a fun, fun night, and the

TIDBIT tables were WONDERFUL thanks to Broach Winsley, Sara Sorenson, Ann Groves and Linda Jones

EVERY VOLUNTEER AND MEMBER IS VALUED.

Last, but not least to answer any questions you may have:

- No, we did not vote on this.
- No money from the guild was used for any of the awards.
- I plan to submit receipts for the refreshments that were for all members/attendees and also for the purchase of the Past Presidents pins which were, according to guild history, given to each past president down through the years. I understand that there were pins somewhere, but could not be found so I purchased a total of three, two of which will remain with someone other than myself for future. The exact amounts will be in an upcoming Treasury Report. If there are objections, just send me an email.

Until next time.....

Ways and Means

Jennie and I want to thank a member who has donated CASH to our Ways & Means Committee. And many thanks to Susan Fisher, Ann Groves, Terry Tinsley, Jill Stroer; and many others who have also donated some wonderful items to our committee.

Regarding our annual R'auction...I'm asking for all members to try to remember to bring any and all quilt related items to us. We will in turn take them to Paula Miller (thank you Paula!!) to store in her home until our October R'auction! Please remember to donate items in good condition...no synthetics, no polyester, or outdated magazines. Quilt shop quality fabrics, current books and quilt kits are great items. UFO's are wonderful too!

Ways & Means Committee - Irene Gardner and Jennie Hollis

Program News

JUL 12 - CHRISTMAS IN JULY - The Stitchery is coming from Rome, GA to bring us the latest fabrics and gadgets so get your list going and shop til you drop.

JULY 26 - THE HISTORY OF FABRICS - A lecture by Mike Flynn. You will learn how to choose the best fabrics for your quilts and so much more. It's such a great lecture on so many things you may have wondered about in your years of seeing and using different kinds of fabrics. He will also bring short-bolts to sell. So there, your quilt list is done!

Community Service

Thank you to our members who continue to work on our current projects. (Placemats for Meals on Wheels and small lap quilts for nursing home.) Any donations can be brought to the monthly meetings.

Sunshine

As this goes to press, Jackie Delgado remains in Douglas Hospital. Her blood count went very, very low due to her sickle cell anemia. She has had to receive several transfusions. Let us keep her in our thoughts and prayers!

I am happy to report that Jackie's daughter Michaela is back home after 12 days in the hospital for sickle cell pain. Sickle cell is a terrible disease!

Jill Stroer is also home from the hospital too and continues to recover! You go Jill!

Jack Tinsley is back home too recovering from surgery and rumor has it he is working part-time. May he soon return to normal!

Last but certainly not least; Denise Adam's little grandchild is home after newborn surgery! Wonderful news!

If you know of one of our members needing sunshine, please let me know! I don't want to miss anyone!

Bonnie McLain, Sunshine Chair

Saturday Stitch-a-Rama

Mark your calendar for Saturday, October 27, 2018.

Golden Scissors

This month there was one Golden Scissors awarded to Linda Poindexter. She created a beautiful quilt called "You Are A Star".

Take the time to look at her beauty on the Guild website or on the My Grove site.

2018 Quilt Challenge

"Reach for the Stars!"

The main focus of your quilt should be stars. You may have star blocks, star arrangements, artistic stars, or even movie stars. When someone looks at your project they should be "seeing stars".

We will have 2 categories, art quilting and traditional quilting. You can participate in either category, your choice.

Anything quilted and finished can be entered, such as tote bags, table runners, wall hangings, or quilts. The only size restriction is that the perimeter is 240 inches or less.

We are encouraging all members to participate and be a star in 2018!

The Quilt Challenge will be the program for the September 27, 2018 night meeting.

Cherokee Rose Quilters Guild Minutes

Day Meeting, June 14, 2018

Ramona called the meeting to order. Motion to approve the May minutes was made by Bonnie and seconded by Sarah. June birthdays were recognized.

Committee Reports

Beekeeper (Annie): June's bee will be at Annie's. Lunch will be served.

Programs (Annie): For today's program we will sew with neckties and Broach will also talk about making T-shirt quilts. The June night meeting will be tidbits and something special. Christmas in July will be presented on July 12th by The Stitchery. Mike Flynn from Quilting Treasures will talk about the history of quilts at the July night meeting. Nancy Mahoney will do a workshop called Twisted Triangle at the August 9th day meeting. A supply list will be mailed when you sign up for the workshop. There is a limit of 20 quilters. Ramona said that this quilt top can be made with a Tonga Treat 6-Pack.

Community Service: Bonnie asked that we continue to make placemats and lap quilts.

Stitcharama: Libby reported that the next Stitcharama is October 27th.

Newsletter: Libby said that all information for the newsletter is due the first Sunday in July.

Sunshine: Bonnie said that Jackie Delgado's daughter is still in the hospital. Terry's husband is recuperating. Charlotte Springer (non-member) had a heart attack. Jill is at home now with oxygen. Denise Adams' grandchild had to have surgery immediately after birth.

Ways and Means: Jennie and Irene are out of town. Susan is downsizing and brought lots of books for sale for 50 cents each to benefit Ways and Means. Will be bringing more next month.

Photographer: Dawn reported that Paul has a job!

Historian: Charlie reported that pictures are on the website and MyGrove.

Membership: Charlie reported that we now have 72 members and today there are 26 members and one visitor present. Door prizes were awarded.

The meeting was adjourned for Show and Tell.

Respectfully submitted,

Sandra Wilson, Day Secretary

Cherokee Rose Quilters Guild Minutes

Night Meeting, June 28, 2018

The meeting was called to order by Ramona at 7:00 pm at Sutton Hall. Minutes from the previous meeting were reviewed and approved.
