From the President's Desk

Ladies and Gents, I am trying to keep you out of the sweatshop. You know how it goes. We keep putting off those Christmas quilts until the last minute and where do we end up? In the "sweatshop!" We ended July with a great opportunity to purchase fabric and kits from Southern Stitches at a really good price, Linda Jones won a "Christmas in July" gift basket from The Stitchery and to kick off August (day meeting), Broach Winsley will be bringing 9 bolts of batik and 2 bolts of cotton off-white fabric by Timeless Treasures to us at a special price of $7.50/yd (which includes the tax). These are great background fabrics. In addition, in the August day meeting you can make a quilt with Nancy Mahoney. WHEW! If that don't get you started, then just wait until September when we're going to make a Christmas tree skirt. My work is done here.

While we are on the subject of Christmas, I am asking everyone to please sign up and pay your $20/person to Terry Tinsley so we can get everything settled and out of the way for our Christmas dinner so we will have a break between dues time. You may also bring a guest to this event. We have such a great fellowship and the food is awesome.

For those who attended the July night meeting, you know it was my 38th wedding anniversary. I thought you'd like to know what Smokee gave me. Well, let me back up a bit. I'm always getting him to sharpen my marking pencils with a knife. He knows how to sharpen them with such a very sharp point, after all he's an architect and they used to have to sharpen their leads to a fine point before computers came along. So, what did I find on the table when I got home? A set of pencil sharpeners - manual - a pack of four - 2 large and 2 small - from Walmart - for $2. (Sigh) He keeps saying that I have everything and I keep telling him there are stores for those who have everything! The man is just begging to live the rest of his days in misery!

Until next time....

Ways and Means

Regarding our annual R'auction...I'm asking for all members to try to remember to bring any and all quilt related items to us. We will in turn take them to Paula Miller (thank you Paula!!) to store in her home until our October R'auction! Please remember to donate items in good condition...no synthetics, no polyester, or outdated magazines. Quilt shop quality fabrics, current books and quilt kits are great items. UFO's are wonderful too!

Ways & Means Committee - Irene Gardner and Jennie Hollis

Community Service

Thank you to our members who continue to work on our current projects. (Placemats for Meals on Wheels and small lap quilts for nursing home.) Any donations can be brought to the monthly meetings.

Program News

AUG 9: OUR NEXT MACHINE CLASS will be with Nancy Mahoney, an international instructor and designer. Nancy will be teaching the Twisted Triangle Quilt. This quilt top only requires a Tonga Treat 6-Pack and preparation for this class is not time consuming. A special discount for members is $10 which INCLUDES the pattern. The visitor cost is $20. The class is limited to 20 students at these prices. All over the limit will be $17 for members and $27 for visitors. See Annie Kellum or Sara Sorensen for signup with your payment and Annie Kellum will email your supply list. Remember to bring a lunch. We may also need a volunteer to pick up lunch for Ms. Mahoney that day, so please let Annie know if you can do this.

SPECIAL BUY: Broach Winsley will have Timeless Treasure fabrics for $7.50/yd which includes tax. There are 9 bolts of batik and 2 bolts of off white cotton and they make great backgrounds. Checks are preferred but cash is ok if you will have the exact amounts as no change will be available.

AUG 23: AISHA LUMUMBA TRUNK SHOW & LECTURE: HER WORDS: "I want my work to reflect my great African heritage as well as the ups and downs of our American experience. I never planned to be an artist. I simply loved participating in any procedure where I used my hands. I found my interest leaning towards fabrics and the way textiles spoke to me in a musical voice. The colors, designs and textures moved in and out with a special rhythm. I strive to capture that musical movement with every piece I create. I reflect it in my quilts and outwardly in my own voice through my quilt stories. I love to create from traditional quilt patterns as well as contemporary designs. I want that mixture to touch a healing spot somewhere deep inside the viewer. I try all kinds of techniques and work hard to go outside my own box. I like to use colors that dance like the gold-orange setting sun over the Serengeti, the green grasses swaying on the Nubian Savannahs or the bright pink hibiscus blossoms kissing the Caribbean breeze. I hear that same music as the colors and design s all come together. I want the viewer to first feel and then hear the strength of that rhythm. Surely, I want my quilts to tell a story and maybe even SING!" WHAT A PROGRAM THIS WILL BE!

SEP 13: LET'S MAKE A CHRISTMAS TREE SKIRT: Dana Brue will be back to teach the class on making a beautiful Christmas Tree Skirt using the 10 Degree Wedge Ruler. Get your ruler, get your machine humming, bring your lunch and let's learn the easy way. Such a fun class. We will have the cost and supply list available soon.

Sunshine

No report for August.

2018 Quilt Challenge

"Reach for the Stars!"

The main focus of your quilt should be stars. You may have star blocks, star arrangements, artistic stars, or even movie stars. When someone looks at your project they should be "seeing stars".

We will have 2 categories, art quilting and traditional quilting. You can participate in either category, your choice.

Anything quilted and finished can be entered, such as tote bags, table runners, wall hangings, or quilts. The only size restriction is that the perimeter is 240 inches or less.

We are encouraging all members to participate and be a star in 2018!

The Quilt Challenge will be the program for the September 27, 2018 night meeting.

Cherokee Rose Quilters Guild Minutes

Day Meeting, July 12, 2018

Emma called the meeting to order. Motion to approve the June minutes was made by Bonnie and seconded by Rachel. July birthdays were recognized.

Committee Reports

Beekeeper (Annie): July's bee will be at Tina Marinoni's. Lunch will be served.

Challenge (Linda Jones): Information is on our website and MyGrove. This will be our program for the September night meeting.

Christmas Party: Terry reported that the Christmas party will be on December 6th. Sarah will begin collecting money today.

Programs (Annie): Christmas in July for today by The Stitchery was cancelled due to a scheduling conflict. They have offered us a nice gift basket and each member participating in today's trunk show of Christmas items will receive a ticket for each item they share to be placed in a drawing for the basket. Mike Flynn from Quilting Treasures will talk about the history of quilts at the July night meeting. Nancy Mahoney will do a workshop called Twisted Triangles at the August 9th day meeting. Bring your lunch. Ramona presented President's Awards at the night meeting. Today she presented service awards to members who were not at the night meeting: Loretta Ford, Jeanne Andersen, Albertha and Sandra and gave a special thank you to Annie for stepping up and helping with the programs. Emma thanked Ramona for the special program at the night meeting.

Community Service: Terry still collecting placemats and quilts. The next delivery will be in late Nov.

Stitcharama: Jill reported that the next Stitcharama is October 27th. $10. 9-9. A signup sheet for food will be passed around to help us have a variety of dishes.

Newsletter: All information for the newsletter is due to Libby the Sunday after our night meeting in July.

Sunshine: Bonnie said that Jackie Delgado's daughter is better and Jackie is doing better. Good to see Jill back today. Denise Adams' granddaughter is at home and doing well. Awilda's father is ill.

Ways and Means: Jennie said that an Ott light has been added. Today they will draw for the magazine, fabric panel and pin cushion and the jelly roll and the quilt kit.

Rauction: Jeanne asked us to go through our things and choose items that we would use but just decided not to and bring them for the Rauction.

Membership: Charlie reported that we now have 73 members and today there are 32 members and one new member present. Door prizes were awarded.

The meeting was adjourned for Show and Tell.

Respectfully submitted,

Sandra Wilson, Day Secretary
