From the President's Desk

Greetings everyone,

It is almost end of year and my job is almost done. Actually, everything is done, I just can't find all the documents. The 2019 Budget, the nominating report, the program reports, the notes for this newsletter, the suggestions, the helpful hints.....but IT IS HEREsomewhere. Well, let's start with what I DO know, or can remember, or can locate.

You have all been emailed the proposed budget for 2019 and I trust that you have read and approved since I did not receive any feedback and the nominees have been reported to you during the October meetings. Next, we have two more programs that I am excited about - Elisabeth Frolet, and Tara Miller. You can read all about their programs in Groupworks and in this newsletter.

On the November 15th night meeting, Tara Miller will deliver the batting you ordered. She will be set up to take your money BEFORE the meeting beginning at 6:30 when the doors open (not before that time). Please show up with your credit card or exact change. I do not have your totals but will ask her to send them to me and I will send out a notice. Also, for her program, she has asked that if you have a quilt made by your mother, grandmother, sister or aunt to please bring it to participate in the program and YES, we will still have Show & Tell.

The Rauction was a success and I believe everything was sold. We had hard working volunteers and I'd like to express gratitude and thanks to each of you. We could not have been a success without you. At the end of the bidding, Loretta and I were in perfect sync with the bids and money and the checkout line moved swiftly. The amount totaled $1,389.00. It was a fun night.

Until next time....

Program News

NOV 8 - ELISABETH FROLET -Ms. Frolet, is a French immigrant to the US and an Atlanta resident since the mid 1990s. She stumbled upon quilting in the early 90s while still living in France and was THUNDERSTRUCK by it. Quilting was virtually unknown in France at that time and she had to teach herself, working with pictures of quilts. Quilting very quickly became her favorite hobby. In the late 2000s she started teaching at Little Quilts and 3 years ago at Tiny Stitches. She started entering her quilts in quilt shows about 5 years ago and have won a few ribbons, including a couple at Paducah and Houston. This program is free to members, $5 for visitors and promises to be thrilling!

NOV 15 - TARA MILLER - Quilting With the Fire of My Foremothers: A one-hour lecture and mini trunk show examines and celebrates the quilting legacy we carry from our foremothers (whether your immediate foremothers were quilters or not). She will share her journey and passion for the relationship between what's old and what's new and how the old and new exist on a continuum rather than in a vacuum, exclusive of one another. Throughout generations quilt making provided women with platforms for their artistic and political voices, as well as their expressions of love and necessities of utility. She will talk about women's lives, women's voice and we will rejoice in our legacies. Tara would like for you to bring a quilt made by your mother, sister or aunt to celebrate these women.

DEC 6 - Christmas Party - Atlanta's Finest, 7981 Highway 78, Winston, GA 30187 Details to follow.

Community Service

Thank you to our members who continue to work on our current projects. (Placemats for Meals on Wheels and small lap quilts for nursing home.) We still need about 40 placemats to meet our total for donation. Please bring these to the November meetings.

SUNSHINE

CHRISTMAS PARTY

The menu is set. Preparations are in full swing for a wonderful party. Make sure if you haven't signed up, to bring your $20 and see Terry Tinsley or Sarah Sorenson at the November meetings. Hope to see you there!!!

GOLDEN SCISSORS

BEAUTIFUL. SIMPLY BEAUTIFUL QUILT TO ENJOY

Due to the annual R'Auction, we only had the day meeting to show off our beautiful finished quilts.

Debbie McDade received a Golden Scissors charm for her "Kelly Michelle" and a golden safety pin for her lovely bag

Ramona Tucker received a golden pin for her pretty Christmas Bed Runner.

PLEASE TAKE THE TIME TO VIEW THESE BEAUTIES.

Cherokee Rose Quilters Guild Meeting

Day Meeting, October 11, 2018

Emma called the meeting to order. Motion to approve the September minutes was made by Awilda and seconded by Ramona. October birthdays were recognized.

Committee Reports

Beekeeper: The September bee was at Ramona's house. The October bee will be at Paula Miller's, hosted by Paula, Sarah and Awilda. Lunch will be served. Please RSVP.

Challenge: All the information is on the website and in the newsletter.

Christmas Party: Sarah is collecting money for the Christmas party which will be on December 6th. Cost is $20. Please sign up.

Community Service: Bonnie reported for Terry that they still need placemats. Please bring to October night meeting or November meetings. We need 180 placemats. Placemats can be made at the Stitch-A-Rama. Sarah reported for Terry that Phyllis had donated yardage for the placemats and Sarah quilted it. It's ready to be sewn into placemats. Lap quilts for memory care units are still needed.

Golden Scissors: Rachel gave a brief explanation of how to earn "Golden Scissors."

Newsletter: Libby asked for all information for the newsletter by October 30th.

Historian: Everything is up on website and GroupWorks.

Programs: Annie reported that O.V. Brantley will present our program today. October's night meeting is the R'auction. She has a sign up sheet for January's program by Muriel Pfaff which is a three-hour workshop making Valentine cards. $20.

Publicity: Joyce Trew changed our meeting address in The Sentinel.

Stitch-A-Rama: Libby passed around a sign up sheet. October 27th. 9-9. $10.

Sunshine: Bonnie reported that Linda Jones' husband will be starting chemo 3-4 times per week. Jill has a knee brace. Remember Irene's daughter, Cheryl.

R'auction: Jeanne asked for those who are available to help set up to please let her know at the end of the meeting today. If you still have items, please give them to Jeanne or make arrangements with her to pick them up or bring them to Sutton Hall at Noon on October 25th. Jeanne explained about the R'auction. The doors will open at 6:00 and the meeting will start at 6:30 to give extra time for the R'auction.

Membership: Today there are 37 members and three visitors present. Door prizes were awarded.

Nominating Committee: Awilda made the following report from the committee:
