

OCTOBER 2019

IT'S FALL, Y'ALL

Greetings Everyone!

I can hardly wait until I can drive on a road like this and see a site like this! The beautiful colors of fall are so amazing that I just wonder in amazement of the intricate details during the earth's creation that gives use such a glorious show. Speaking of colors, doesn't this remind you of our night program using triadic colors in the competition? When Rachel Phaneuf did a presentation to help us understand triadic colors, she showed pictures of things we see everyday. I love collecting colorful leaves to put in a glass bowl to use as a centerpiece during the fall. I just hope that when you go out to breathe in the fall air you do not become congested, have a runny nose, teary eyes and coughing fits as I do. Ahhh, this is what I call Pain & Glory!

Until next time.....
