Program News

February 2020 Day Meeting... BUGGY BARN TRUNK SHOW with TERRY POWERS

Terry Powers is an award-winning prolific quilter who has been quilting for over 30 years. She learned to sew as a child and to hand quilt with cardboard templates in 1980 before moving on to machine work. She now is known for making lovely quilts with small piecing from her vast array of scraps. She teaches quilting classes, specializing in Buggy Barn quilts. She got her first long arm machine in 2001 and has been a professional long arm quilter ever since.

Terry is originally from Missouri and is married to Mike. They have two children and five grandchildren

February 2020 Night Meeting...

COLLAGE QUILT TRUNK SHOW with NANCY HUTCHISON

Nancy has been a sewer and lover of fabrics since childhood. Quilting, teaching others and judging quilt shows are her passions. I have recently been certified as a Laura Heine Collage instructor and can't wait to share these patterns and techniques.

Nancy is originally from Michigan and has two grown children.

Community Service

Bev Mahale is out traveling again after recent knee issues! Joyce Trew's hubby Paul is recovering from his recent fall!

Denise Allee is recovering from her recent surgery and is at home. She will continue to heal but is hoping to be back in March! I am sure she would appreciate hearing from members. She has had a long hard struggle.

Please keep me posted of those needing sunshine from our guild.

GOLDEN SCISSORS

Linda West will receive a golden scissors charm for her colorful "Quilt As You Go" scrappy quilt. She will also receive a Golden Safety Pin for her "Baby Quilt with Elephants".

NATIONAL QUILTING DAY AT PICKETT'S MILL

Broach Winsley is the contact person if you are interested in participating in the National Quilting Day March 14th.

We here at Pickett's Mill would like to invite you to the first of hopefully many National Quilting Day Programs at Pickett's Mill on Saturday, March 14, 2020.

Tentative plans at this time are to put a display of quilts, including an antique quilt frame in our museum for the month of March.

On the day of March 14th from 10 am to 4 pm we will have the frame set up at our 1853 log cabin. We would also like to have a Civil War pattern quilt set up on it for visitors to quilt on in a quilting bee fashion.

We would like to invite your Quilting Guild or Group to help us out with this event. We would like to have experienced quilters to talk with visitors and demonstrate quilting techniques, both modern and traditional. You will be able to come and go as you would like. You will be permitted to advertise for your Guild or Group.

Park admission will be free for demonstrators.

TRAVELING QUILTERS ... ON THE FLORIDA PANHANDLE

Panama City

Quilting by the Bay sustained a lot of damage from Hurricane Michael but fortunately the building next door that was used for classes and retreats fared better. The store is now located there with a good selection of fabric, patterns and notions as well as fun gifts for your quilting friends.

Destin

Coastal Stitches has a modest selection of nice fabrics and a whole wall full of rulers and gadgets for long armers. They also have “beachy” patterns and projects that are wonderful souvenirs of a visit to the area.

Pensacola

A & E was once a drug store that also sold fabric and Mardi Gras beads but now it's just fabric (thousands of bolts) and beads. You know when you walk into a quilt shop and they have shopping carts you are in for some serious shopping. Solids, batiks, novelties, seasonal, juvenile, you name it, they have it. There is also a large selection of wide backs, threads and notions.

Have you traveled to a quilt shop or show? Share the details with your fellow Guild members. Send the what and where to suekate@bellsouth.net
