

President's Desk

Happy February Cherokee Rose,

I hope everyone is doing well! We had a good meeting on January 28th. We had about 12 people attend our Zoom Meeting. We discussed having a Virtual Stitch In on February 27th. So, if you are interested in joining this Stitch In, please contact me at tmarinoni@gmail.com. This is like sewing together, but at your home, and you would have your lap top, tablet or smart phone on while sewing. This way we can share sewing and visit with each other and share our LOVE of QUILTING! Again, if you are interested please let me know.

It looks like we are going to have to continue to meet though Zoom for several more months. So, if you have any creative ideas, or topics that we can discuss using Zoom please let me know so we can try and schedule times to meet. We will get through this! Please try and attend a Zoom Meeting! It's so nice to chat and see each other even if it's virtually.

Hope to see you on February 25th at 7pm. Stay Healthy!!

Tina

Virtual Stitch-In

WHEN? Saturday, February 27, 2021

WHERE? ZOOM

Until it's safe for us to quilt till we wilt in person, we can do it electronically. It's fun and easy. Join the event and pretend like you're sewing with the group. Set up your device and cut, sew, iron just as you would at a regular Saturday Stitch In while chatting with each other. The only thing missing? The delicious pot luck lunch and Anne's yeast rolls!

If you are interested in attending this virtual event, please email Tina at tmarinoni@gmail.com.

We'll need at least five of you, and hopefully a lot more, to join.

How to join a Zoom Meeting:

First, download the free Zoom app to your laptop, tablet or smart phone.

When it's meeting time, use the link below to join. Either tap it or copy and paste it to the subject line on the search engine of your device.

JANUARY 28 ZOOM MEETING MINUTES

Cherokee Rose Quilt Guild

January 2021

The meeting was held via Zoom and was called to order by our President, Tina Marinoni.

During the meeting, 15 people logged on.

The meeting was informal, with those present sharing events in their own lives and updating the group on folks who were not present. Several of our members have had COVID-19 or other health issues. Without traditional meetings, it is harder to keep up with each other. Let us know what is going on with you. This is a group of very caring folks and we want to reach out to each other and lift each other in prayer.

The meeting provided a chance to troubleshoot some sewing machine issues and to share show and tell projects. What a joy to see a variety of beautiful work! If you have projects to share, please send pictures to Charlie (les1phd@charter.net). He will post them so we can all enjoy and admire your handiwork.

Jeannie Anderson let us know of an event in February at the Douglasville Museum (Old Courthouse). Diane Turner has received donations of several old quilts and will have them displayed in a historical context. The set up was at the end of January and the quilts will be on display through the month of February.

St. Julian's church remains closed to gatherings at this time and for the foreseeable future. Plans are underway for Charlie and Rachel to present a virtual quilting program for our guild in March. More details to come.

Zoom Guild Meetings are scheduled on the fourth Thursday of every month at 7 pm through July.

Please join us!

Challenge Quilt

Because guild activities are canceled for the rest of 2020, the Challenge Quilts will be due September 2021. The Gallon Bag challenge will be due November 2021.

Broach Winsley

The item can be anything and any size – bed quilt, wall hanging, table runner, bag, etc. It must tell a Story. If you make a large quilt it probably can't be displayed in full unless you bring a rack but it can be folded to show as much of the quilt as we can. After the voting, you will be able to display your quilt to the group and tell you story.

The Gallon Bag Challenge

7 people joined the Gallon Bag Challenge. Each filled a gallon Ziplock bag with fabrics, buttons, zippers, lace, trim, etc. The bags were distributed among the participants. Each person will make a wall hanging using some or all of the items in the bag. Maker can add fabric, etc. Maker does not have to use all of the items in the bag. The wall hanging must be finished – quilted and bound. At the November 2021 night meeting the quilts will be returned to person who filled the gallon bag and an explanation (if needed) will be given for each quilt.

Community Service

Our Community Service project for 2020 was so successful, that it will continue on through 2021: Quilts, Drawstring Bags and Pillowcases for the Douglas County Foster Children.

Bev Mahle

I've donated to CASA (Court Appointed Special Advocates) for several years. They work directly with the foster care program in Douglas County. There are 215 kids (up to age 21) currently in "the system," a number which is ever changing.

They are always in need of quilts! However, they are also in great need of items to put in the duffle bags currently supplied by another civic organization. So, WE are making drawstring bags and pillowcases for foster kids!! The bags will then be used for personal hygiene items and should be large enough to hold full-size toothpaste, toothbrushes, deodorant, etc. (If you would like to add a little extra, The Dollar Tree has toothpaste, toothbrushes, deodorant, etc.)

They specifically need items for teenage BOYS.

Have fun and let's show the kids some love!!

Saturday Stitch-a-Rama

We'll reschedule the Spring Stitch-a-Rama as soon as it's safe for us to gather. We now have several months to try and figure a good location for everyone. If anyone has an idea for a location, please let me know

If anyone has questions call me at my office, 770-827-9935.

Stay safe as well.

How to find the guild on Facebook:

Go to facebook.com

In the search box enter Cherokee Rose Quilters Guild

The CRQG page will pop up.

How to find the guild’s website:

Put www.cherokeerosequiltguild.com in your internet browser

The website has information about every aspect of the guild including meeting, program and workshop information, quilt photos, newsletters and more.

How to join a Zoom meeting:

The easiest way is to tap on the link that Tina will email to you. Just tap the link at the appointed hour. Depending on your device, there will be icons at the top or bottom of the screen for video and audio. A red line through either icon means no audio or video. Just tap on the icon and the red line will disappear and you will be seen and heard. It will be easier to see you if you have the light source behind your device so you’re looking at it. If the light’s behind you, your face will be in the shadow and you’ll look like you’re in the witness protection program.

Beginning with the January 2021 issue, the Guild Newsletter will be online only. You can access the newsletter through Group Works or the Cherokee Rose website.
