

President's Desk

Happy June Cherokee Rose,

May is over and it's time to go outside and enjoy this BEAUTIFUL weather! I think that in May we had some GOREGEOUS days! I am looking forward to June!

I wanted to thank Rachel, Charlie and Irene for their time this past month. If you weren't there for the day meeting, Charlie and Rachel showed their Creative Crazy Quilts. And at the night meeting, Irene showed us a NON-sewing project for making Scandinavian Stars. Check out Groupworks; there are a BUNCH of really good pictures of each project.

In June the day meeting will be a Field Trip to Stitch 'n Quilt. (please see the newsletter for more directions) The night meeting will be held at Grace Presbyterian Church; 5000 Stewart Mill Rd. Doors will open at 6 pm and the meeting will start at 6:30.

Hope to see you there,
Tina

Challenge Quilt

Because guild activities are canceled for the rest of 2020, the Challenge Quilts will be due September 2021. The Gallon Bag challenge will be due November 2021.

Broach Winsley

The item can be anything and any size – bed quilt, wall hanging, table runner, bag, etc. It must tell a Story. If you make a large quilt it probably can't be displayed in full unless you bring a rack but it can be folded to show as much of the quilt as we can. After the voting, you will be able to display your quilt to the group and tell you story.

The Gallon Bag Challenge

7 people joined the Gallon Bag Challenge. Each filled a gallon Ziplock bag with fabrics, buttons, zippers, lace, trim, etc. The bags were distributed among the participants. Each person will make a wall hanging using some or all of the items in the bag. Maker can add fabric, etc. Maker does not have to use all of the items in the bag. The wall hanging must be finished – quilted and bound. At the November 2021 night meeting the quilts will be returned to person who filled the gallon bag and an explanation (if needed) will be given for each quilt.

DEADLINE FOR JULY NEWSLETTER IS JUNE 27.

Community Service

Our Community Service project for 2020 was so successful, that it will continue on through 2021: Quilts, Drawstring Bags and Pillowcases for the Douglas County Foster Children.

If I'm not at a meeting and you have items ready to go, I'm very willing to pick them up at your convenience. I do plan to have another drop off 'under the big tree' at First United Methodist, probably in September!!

Continue your great work...y'all have been amazing and a blessing to so many!

Bev Mahle

I've donated to CASA (Court Appointed Special Advocates) for several years. They work directly with the foster care program in Douglas County. There are 215 kids (up to age 21) currently in "the system," a number which is ever changing.

They are always in need of quilts! However, they are also in great need of items to put in the duffle bags currently supplied by another civic organization. So, WE are making drawstring bags and pillowcases for foster kids!! The bags will then be used for personal hygiene items and should be large enough to hold full-size toothpaste, toothbrushes, deodorant, etc. (If you would like to add a little extra, The Dollar Tree has toothpaste, toothbrushes, deodorant, etc.)

They specifically need items for teenage BOYS.

Have fun and let's show the kids some love!!

Let's continue to keep Emma Parker in prayers for strength in the loss of her son.

Loretta Ford was sick and had to call out for coming to the night meeting... Let's hope she is feeling better.

Any other of you out there missing the meeting for health reasons, let me know so i can share with our members! We need to support each other!
