

President's Desk

Hi Cherokee Rose Quilt Guild, September! Wow, the year is going by so fast! Hope everyone is feeling Good! This is the time of the year where we start to think about the temperature cooling down and watching football. I just love Fall, the colors, the temperatures are cooler, but still warm enough to do outside activities. And we start to think about Christmas. Which Christmas Quilts are going to get made by Christmas! For me this year is going to be rushed. Since I went back to work I don't have a lot of time to sew. Let's hope you get all of your Christmas Quilts started! Starting in September 2021 we are meeting at St Julian's. They have opened up for outside groups. September 9th, 2021 is our Day Meeting. Doors open at 9am, meeting starts at 9:30.

St Julian's address is :

5400 Stewart Mill Rd, Douglasville.

Hope to see you there!

Tina

AS OF THIS DATE, WE WILL BE RETURNING TO ST. JULIAN'S EPISCOAL CHURCH FOR DAY & NIGHT MEETINGS FOR THE REST OF 2021.

Challenge Quilt

The Story Quilt Challenge Quilts will be revealed at the September 23rd Night Meeting.

The item can be anything and any size – bed quilt, wall hanging, table runner, bag, etc. It must tell a Story. If you make a large quilt it probably can't be displayed in full unless you bring a rack but it can be folded to show as much of the quilt as we can. After the voting, you will be able to display your quilt to the group and tell you story.

The Gallon Bag Challenge Quilts will be revealed at the November 18th Night Meeting.

August 12th Day Meeting canceled

Cherokee Rose Quilt Guild
Night Meeting Minutes
August 26, 2021

The meeting was called to order at 6:30 pm by President Tina Marinoni at Grace Presbyterian Church.

Locations:

- We plan to resume meeting at St. Julian's in September and to meet there for the remainder of the year.
- The Christmas Party will be held at Grace Presbyterian Church on December 2, 2021.
- We will decide whether to move our meetings to Grace Presbyterian or remain at St. Julian's for 2022.

Birthdays for the month of August were recognized.

Bees: There are no official Bees scheduled.

Challenge Quilt: There are two challenges in progress.

Gallon Bags have already been exchanged. These quilts will be shared on November 18, 2021.

Story Quilts will be shared on September 23, 2021.

Christmas Party: The party will be held on December 2nd, the first Thursday in December.

Anne Groves and the committee are catering our meal at Grace Presbyterian Church.

Cost is $20.00 per person. It is time to sign up and get your payment in!

Community Service: The October day meeting will be spent sewing for Community Service projects.

Golden Scissors: Rules are elsewhere in newsletter.

Historian: Pictures are on Groupworks and the Cherokee Rose Website.

Membership: Tonight 24 members and 1 visitor were present. Prizes were distributed.

Registration for next year will begin in October. Cost is $30.00 for the year.

Newsletter: Get information to Susan Fisher by Sunday for inclusion in the next issue.

Each newsletter is available on the Cherokee Rose Quilt Guild website and on GroupWorks.

Programs: Details are elsewhere in the newsletter.

Jill Stroer gave an overview of programs currently scheduled.

Quilt Til You Wilt: Saturday October 9th from 9 am until 9pm at First United Methodist Church.

Please sign up, bring food to share, and projects to work on. Cost is $10.00 per person.

R'Auction: October 21 at the night meeting

Bring donations already sorted and boxed.

If there are items left after the auction, they will go home with the person that brought them.

Sunshine: Bev has COVID pneumonia and is in the hospital.

Ways and Means: Will re-start in September.

Old Business: We are still in need of people to fill multiple positions for next year:

President

Day Secretary

Program Chair

Treasurer

Night Secretary

Challenge Quilt Chair

As always, we enjoyed show and tell. It is a treat to see the beauty of each other's work and artistry.

Vicki Hecht shared an inspiring program on orphan blocks and creative ways to use them. A few folks even won some orphans to take home!

Respectfully submitted,

Denise Adams

SATURDAY QUILT TILL YOU WILT

Saturday Quilt Till You Wilt is back! Mark your calendars for October 9, 2021. It will be at the Methodist church at the corner of Hospital Drive and Prestley Mill Rd across from the Hospital, from 9 am to 9 pm. It's $10.00 to attend. Non-members welcome. You can come for a few hours or all day. Everyone brings a dish to share for lunch and leftovers for supper. I will start a list of who can come and food items in the next few months.

If anyone has questions call me at my office, 770-827-9935.

Stay safe as well.

Ann Groves

CHRISTMAS PARTY

Our Christmas party will be on Thursday, Dec 2nd at Grace Presbyterian Church. $20 per person includes dinner and holiday frivolity. Spouses and guests are invited. Money due by November night meeting.

Vicki, Sandy and Broach are working on this with me. You can contact me at 770-827-9935.

PROGRAMS:

September 9, Day, Christmas Stocking Workshop with Annie Kellum

Bring 2 fat quarters of holiday fabric (one for outside, one for lining) plus sewing machines and sewing supplies and your lunch.

If you didn't sign up at a meeting, call Annie, 770-851-1096 so she will have a head count for materials she's supplying.

September 23, night, Story Quilt Challenge reveal

October 14, Day-Community Service Sew In

Bring sewing machine, sewing supplies & brown bag lunch

October 28, R'Auction (see new procedures on page)

November 11th, Day, Sewing Room Wreath with Rita Perez - Rescheduled

November 18th, Night, Gallon Bag Challenge Quilts

Let's all keep Bev in our thoughts and prayers as she continues to recover from Covid and leaving the hospital to return home. I am sure she would appreciate hearing from our members.

Let us hope we do not have to add another name to this Covid list next month but if so, please keep me posted.

If you know of someone or you need sunshine, just contact me!

R' Auction

October 28, Night Meeting

We're changing the procedures this year. Instead of bringing your donations in advance to a central location for the committee to box up, YOU will bring your items to St. Julian's on October 28th, already boxed (use the usual shallow boxes) and ready to go!

Please, no magazines, batting pieces or junky fabric. Fill you boxes (yes, you can bring more than one) with quilting fabrics, patterns, books, notions, embellishments, etc., that will tempt your fellow quilters.

Another change, if your box doesn't sell, you take it home!

We will announce times and location as soon as they are confirmed.

Questions? Contact Broach Winsley: 404-625-7870

Community Service

Our Community Service projects 2021 are Quilts, Drawstring Bags and Pillowcases for the Douglas County Foster Children.

The October 14th Day Meeting will be a special Community Service Sewing Day. Bring your machine and sewing supplies and fabric for pillowcases, drawstring bags or quilts. If you don't want to sew you can join in and speed the process along by cutting &/or ironing.
Bring a brown bag lunch.

Have fun and let's show the kids some love!!

SEND YOUR QUILT PICTURES TO CHARLIE!

GOLDEN SCISSORS

August 26th, Night Meeting: Sandy Vickers. “Weathervane”

Remember to record your name, quilt, details in the Golden Scissors book at meetings.

A Golden Scissor Charm is awarded for a completed quilt with a minimum measurement of 220" around the perimeter of the quilt.

Golden Scissors Rules

- The quilt should be completed in the same year the award is given.
- The quilt must be completely finished, quilted and bound.
- There must be a quilt label sewn into or onto the quilt with at least the quilter's name and date.
- The quilter presenting the quilt must have pieced the top.
- Piecing can be done by hand or by machine.
- Block-of-the-month, friendship, and round robin quilts assembled by the owner qualify for Awards.
- Whole cloth quilts are acceptable: however, no cheater quilts.
- Quilting may be either by hand or machine.
- Professional machine quilting and tied quilts are acceptable
- After earning 5 Golden Safety Pin Awards, they may be exchanged for 1 Golden Scissor Award.
- Both a written record of the Award and a Photo will be kept permanently by the guild.
- The record will include: the quilter's name, the name of the quilt and awards given

Beginning with the January 2021 issue, the Guild Newsletter will be online only. You can access the newsletter through Group Works or the Cherokee Rose website.

Connies Quilt Shop
785 8th Avenue
Marion, Iowa

Okay, this is a tiny hole in the wall kind of shop. It's jam packed with all sorts of quilting treasures though. They specialize in older fabrics and panels; you know... the prints you really wanted and passed up because you already reached your spending limit. This shop gives you a second chance at getting that print you wished you had bought. I scored some gorgeous "Little House on the Prairie" prints that I've never seen in other shops!

They also have every type of embroidery you dream about; from the 30's designs to more modern patterns, toweling and embroidery supplies. Don't be put off by the hoarding ambiance... they really have tons of to die for quilting supplies! And best of all...Connie the owner of this hidden gem is very sweet and friendly and welcoming to us out of towners! The shop is worth visiting if you happen to be in the Cedar Rapids area.

The Woolen Needle
225 W. Welsh St.
Williamsburg, Iowa

Okay; first thing to know is this shop is in the wonderfully restored village of Williamsburg, which is a great place to spend a day visiting the old village, and various shops. Then have lunch in one of the wonderful restaurants and stroll over to visit this quilt shop!

They specialize in wool of course, also historic fabric reproductions. They have wool in every color you ever dreamed of, also a supply of all things embroidery. They have kits, and they've all read the Outlander books; so we had much in common as we discussed their Scottish wool plaids and tartans!
