

President's Desk

We had a good crowd at the April night meeting. I was impressed that nearly everyone tried hand quilting without complaining. The book THE BORDER WORKBOOK by Janet Kime that I recommended and said cost $50 on line and the original cost was $25. I checked again last night: Amazon had it for $50 but Ebay had it for $25. The copy I had was Vickie Hecht's. I ordered me one. It has very good instructions and tells you how to measure so border will fit quilt top.

May night meeting will be painting on fabric with acrylic paints. The paints are water soluble but won't come out of your clothes so wear stuff you don't care about or bring on old apron. Prepared for dyeing fabric will be provided as will paints, brushes, stamps, PVC pipe, empty liquor bottles, brayers, etc.

June day meeting will be a trip to Cottontail Fabrics, Kennesaw, which is under new owner ship. Meet at the Park and Ride at 7500 Douglas Blvd at intersection of Stewart Parkway and Douglas Blvd. Carpools will leave at 9:30. You can eat lunch near Cottontail plus the East Cobb Quilt Show is nearby in Marietta. Check with Jill for more info.

Grace Church frowns on raffles so we have changed Ways and Means to a silent auction. You write down what you will pay for a given item. Someone else can overbid you. When time is called, the highest bidder gets the item. Items will be sold at each meeting. You can bring quilting books, fabric, UFOs, etc. There will be 3-5 items for sale at each meeting, hopefully.

Happy quilting.

Regina tells us she is home and on oxygen and recovering. Please think of her during this recovery time and am sure she would like cards, texts, or calls.

Thankfully, again no covid to report! Let's hope this dreaded plague is fading.

Community Service 2022

This year we will be providing place mats for Meals on Wheels. Our goal is to have 200 to present to the organization in November. Turn them in to Jill or Bonnie as you finish them.

Just a couple of guidelines:

No holiday or religious fabrics, please.

Placemats should be 14" x 18" (or close to it) to fit a TV tray

SAVE THE DATES:

September 22nd R'Auction, night meeting – AT ST. JULIAN'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH

September 24th Quilt Till You Wilt, 9-9 – AT GRACE PRESBYTERIAN

December 1st Christmas Party – AT GRACE PRESBYTERIAN

Challenge Quilt 2022

This year's challenge is to illustrate a song that has special meaning for you, or a song that brings back memories, or a song that you simply enjoy,

Illustrate the song title or any portion of the lyrics from your song. All music styles are eligible (i.e. hymns, country western, Christmas carols, opera, musicals, etc.). The song lyrics you choose may be improvisations of the original lyrics.

The project size is wall hanging or smaller. Your project does not have to be quilt, but it must be a finished project made mostly with fabric and thread.

Your project must be something that you made. For example, if your favorite cat from the Broadway musical is Bustopher Jones, you should make Bustopher as a black cat with white spots and then stuff him like he belongs to 8 or 9 clubs. Dressing up a store-bought toy cat in a black tuxedo does not qualify.

Panel pieces are allowed, but not more than one-quarter of your project may contain an intact panel or a portion of a panel.

Challenge entries will be grouped into 2 categories:

Traditional Quilt - a quilted project with a top, batting, back, and binding; and,

Other - a finished project that is not a traditional quilt.

You may enter multiple projects in each category, but only your project which receives the highest vote total will be eligible for a prize. Entries will be submitted and exhibited at the October night meeting. Meeting attendees will vote for first, second, and third places in each category. Winners will be announced during the October night meeting and small prizes will be awarded.

Ways & Means has changed! It will now be a Silent Auction. Highest bidder takes home the item.

Donations of quilting fabric, books, supplies are welcomed and appreciated.

Minutes of the April 14, 2022 day meeting of The Cherokee Rose Quilt Guild

The meeting was called to order by Debbie McDade, Vice President

Abbreviated reports were given by the activity heads with no changes made to any of the activities except Ways and Means. Which was the new business discussion.

There was no old business to discuss.

New business taken up was the need to change how our Ways and Means is operated. Because we 'raffle' our ways and means by buying tickets and using them in the item boxes we desire, Grace Presbyterian Church considers this a game of 'chance' and games of 'chance' are gambling which cannot take place on church property. This leaves us with the choice of changing our method of Ways and Means or finding another place to meet. Since the majority of members really enjoy meeting at Grace Presbyterian Church for its ease of entry and use, discussion was had over how to change our method of purchase. Final discussion ended with the plan to use cards at each item where the members will place their price for buying the item with the highest bidder winning the item. This is essentially a 'silent auction' and we hope this will not be offensive to the church. This will be discussed more at the night meeting and a solution voted on.

The business meeting was adjourned and those who brought machines and fabric stayed and made placemats for our community project of Meals on Wheels.

Respectfully submitted
Sandy Vickers
Day Secretary
