

President's Desk

Editor's Note: Broach is recovering from pneumonia so no President's Message this month.

It's never too early to start setting R' auction items aside. It's a good "indoor" activity on these hot days.

Here are the guidelines:

YOU will bring your items to St. Julian's on September 22nd, already boxed (use the usual shallow boxes) and ready to go! Put your name on each box. There will be young, strong volunteers to transfer boxes from your car to the meeting room.

Please, no magazines, batting pieces or junky fabric. Fill your boxes (yes, you can bring more than one) with quilting fabrics, patterns, books, notions, embellishments, etc., that will tempt your fellow quilters.

Remember, if your box doesn't sell, you take it home!

Just a couple of guidelines:

No holiday or religious fabrics, please.

Placemats should be 14" x 18" (or close to it) to fit a TV tray

Challenge Quilt 2022

This year's challenge is to illustrate a song that has special meaning for you, or a song that brings back memories, or a song that you simply enjoy,

Illustrate the song title or any portion of the lyrics from your song. All music styles are eligible (i.e. hymns, country western, Christmas carols, opera, musicals, etc.). The song lyrics you choose may be improvisations of the original lyrics.

The project size is wall hanging or smaller. Your project does not have to be quilt, but it must be a finished project made mostly with fabric and thread.

Your project must be something that you made. For example, if your favorite cat from the Broadway musical is Bustopher Jones, you should make Bustopher as a black cat with white spots and then stuff him like he belongs to 8 or 9 clubs. Dressing up a store-bought toy cat in a black tuxedo does not qualify.

Panel pieces are allowed, but not more than one-quarter of your project may contain an intact panel or a portion of a panel.

Challenge entries will be grouped into 2 categories:

Traditional Quilt - a quilted project with a top, batting, back, and binding; and,

Other - a finished project that is not a traditional quilt.

You may enter multiple projects in each category, but only your project which receives the highest vote total will be eligible for a prize. Entries will be submitted and exhibited at the October night meeting. Meeting attendees will vote for first, second, and third places in each category. Winners will be announced during the October night meeting and small prizes will be awarded.

Minutes of the Day Meeting of
Cherokee Rose Quilt Guild
June 6, 2022

There was no business meeting for the guild today but a 'field trip' to Cottontail Quilt Shop in Marietta, GA. We carpoled as necessary and met on the lovely front porch of the shop until we were all there. Thirteen members enjoyed the hospitality of the ladies at Cottontails throughout the morning and were able to purchase lovely fabrics and patterns for future beautiful quilts.

We send our sincere thanks to the ladies for having us and giving each of us a nice 'goodie' bag.

Respectfully submitted,
Sandy Vickers, Day Secretary
