PRESIDENT'S DESK
NOVEMBER 2022

In June I had a cat scan which showed pneumonia. Two months later I had another cat scan to see if pneumonia was gone. That one showed stuff lower than the first one and found a large cyst on my pancreas. I am scheduled for surgery Nov 11 if Kaiser approves the request. Surgery at Emory St Joe. Probably a week in hospital and 4-6 weeks recovery. So I may miss gallon bag challenge but Dawn will run that.

We couldn't stay at Grace Church because we didn't have a church member in our group. Vickie has a friend, Kathy Jacobs who is a member of Grace and she will see if Grace will let us back in on Kathy's membership. But if Kathy has to be present that won't work. Mary Graham offered her Lutheran Church on Chapel Hill Rd next to Old Gold's Gym which then became One Life. It is open Monday and Tuesday mornings while people work on Meals on Wheels if you want to go by and see it. From the window it appears smaller than St Julian's- maybe half the size. I saw 7 rectangular tables along the walls and at least 6 round tables in the middle of the floor. I'll try to get by there Tuesday and measure.

We have a full slate of officers and committee members. We will vote at both November meetings and install at Christmas Party. For rest of 2022 we will meet at St Julian's. After you have had a chance to see the Lutheran Church we will vote on meeting place for 2023. Lutheran Church does have drive up and unload capability like Grace and does have a kitchen.

Challenge quilt was a lot of fun. 2 categories – traditional quilts and non-tradition. Only Albertha and I entered non-traditional so both won - Albertha got first prize. Guess who got second. 6 members entered traditional quilts – 4 prizes were given there. Lots of creativity in our group.

Minutes of the October 13, 2022
Day meeting of the Cherokee Rose Quilt Guild

The meeting was called to order by VP, Debbie. Birthdays were recognized. Minutes from the previous meeting were approved.

A report on the R'auktion was given. Attendance was down from the previous year and sales totaled - $780. Still, all had a fun evening.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Election Committee- Broach reported that we still need some to volunteer for the new year to serve as a committee head. As of this writing - we still need day and night secretaries, and a Beekeeper. Let Broach know your decision to jump on board.!!!

Membership- we currently have 47 members paid. Today, 21 were present, and we had 3 visitors. Plus Charlie came to help with the display. Tickets were drawn and gifts given out, Sunshine-Denise's husband (cat bite) is doing much better.

Community Service- Jill has received 260 placemats . ! She will take more..

NO REPORT- Treasury

Today's program is instructions on sewing a small, zippered ditty bag by Irene Gardner.

Looking ahead: October bee is next Thursday 20th at St. Julian's 9-3. $5 and your lunch.

October night meeting 27th- Challenge Quilts will be revealed.

*November day- 10th Trunk Show by Irene.

*November night- 17th Challenge Quilts revealed

*December 1- Christmas Party.

Remember all meetings are at St Julian's until ... If you have a great location to suggest ... the Pres. would be open to check it out.

A motion was made to have some sort of charity focus with the Christmas Party. IT will be presented to the night meeting. Christmas committee will determine specifics of the charity focus..

There is a fabric sale. Rachel had fabric donated to her- and she is bringing it to us and the guild. Some available today and some at the night meeting, Come prepared to purchase this nice offering.

Meeting was adjourned for show and tell, and shopping for fabric on display.

* Dates changed because of holidays in November and December.

Respectfully submitted,
acting Secretary,
Jeanne Andersen
