PRESIDENT'S DESK

Yesterday evening while I was putting the chainsaw back the shed, a box I hadn't thought about in many months caught my eye. (It wasn't really the chainsaw, but right after a tropical storm "chainsaw" felt like a more appropriate word than whatever implement I actually put away.) The box that I stopped and thought about? The box with the Christmas tree. I counted, on my fingers, the number of weeks until I would be back in the shed to haul that box up to the house. I didn't run out of fingers. I only needed nine.

Before I head back to the shed for that box, there is an important event on the Cherokee Rose Quilt Guild calendar - the election of officers for 2025. Voting will be conducted during the day and night meetings in November. Our elected officers are president, vice president, treasurer, day secretary, and night secretary. Concurrent with the election of officers is the annual call for people willing to serve next year as our 2025 standing committee and ad-hoc committee chairs. It is time for volunteers to step forward.

Perhaps you are already serving as an officer or committee chair and you want to continue serving in the same position in 2025. Perhaps you want to retire from your current position and serve in a different position. Or perhaps you've served for years and want to take a break from leadership in 2025. Simply contact Bonnie or me when you read this message and let us know what you would like to do, or not do, in 2025.

If you are a member who is not currently serving as an officer or committee chair, please consider volunteering. The full list of officer and committee positions can be found in this newsletter. If you are not sure because you have questions, please call Bonnie, me, or the current committee chair and ask questions. We would love to have you working with the guild in 2025.

When I went down to the shed for the Christmas tree last year, I was counting open committee positions while I hauled the box back to the house. Please volunteer now so that I don't have to count again this year.

Until our next meeting,

Paul

CHALLENGE QUILTS

Clue

Each person chooses three cards from a standard "Clue" game. They then have to represent those three 'clues' somehow in their quilt. The people (Professor Plum, Ms. Scarlet, etc.) could be easy as they can represent the color (but they don't have to), the rooms and weapons will be the tricky part.

The Rope ... could be a rope quilting motif, or a couched thread as an embellishment

Lead Pipe ... something grey, something long and thin

Conservatory ... use floral fabric, applique flowers and vines

Example: Mrs. Peacock in the Dining Room with the Revolver could be Peacock feathers forming a Dresden Plate (dining room), quilted in concentric circles (revolver).

There is no size restriction to the challenge, it can be a pillow, bag, wall hanging, quilt any size, etc. It is due the night meeting in October.

There is no size restriction to the challenge, it can be a pillow, bag, wall hanging, quilt can be any size. Due at October night meeting.
