In the crazy quilt of life, I'm glad you're in my block of friends!

A Message from the President: Please see The Vice-President message on page 2

Hello fellow Quilters and Happy New Year!

I am so pleased to be your 2007 President. Thank you for the honor and the vote of confidence and I can only live up to the expectations with everyone's help to make it a successful year. Phyl and I want to have a year of fun times with learning and experiencing quilting at it's finest. Cherokee Rose has many new faces who are just learning the "Joy of Quilting" which brings new excitement to the guild. At our first meeting, all the Committees will be introduced. I have included the Standard and Ad Hoc Committee information in this newsletter. You are still welcome to volunteer. See you at the meeting. Do we have a surprise for you – be there. Special thanks to our Christmas Elf for all her hard work arranging our fantastic Christmas Party. Ms. Claus, you looked terrific!

A Message from the Vice President:

Plenty of FUN and FOOD and FABRIC and FELLOWSHIP was enjoyed by all at the Christmas Party. I want to say THANK-YOU to all of you who attended. I was especially happy to see that Ms. Claus could join us for the festivities. Thank-you, Ms. Claus-Carolyn Chapman-for organizing all the food! Many THANK-YOUs to:

Caryl for getting the ham and everybody who made delicious food; Rachael Phaneuf, for sharing your talent of crafting colorful balloon hats;

Ann Groves, Jessie Quick and husband Homer, for singing and playing the guitar;

Diane Johnson, for cutting all those 2 ½” beige squares for the hand piecing project;

Denise Allee, for delivering our many donation gifts;

The set-up committee: Diane, Dorene Bickford, Caryl, Jessie, Ted and Irene;

The clean-up committee: Diane, Sandy Capazzi, Mary Graham, Jessie, Homer, Ann, Denise and Caryl. It's wonderfully grand when we quilt lovers can enjoy an evening together with each other. Thanx so much. Gratefully submitted, Your Christmas Elf. Phyl

the same for both Day and Night Meetings.
Each fat quarter you bring equals one lottery ticket.

Standing and Ad Hoc Committees:

Bee Keeper – Organizes meetings for day and night bees, which are generally held in various members' homes. Dates, location and any planned activity are communicated to members at the meetings and to Newsletter Editor.

Community Service Committee - Recommends projects to the guild that promote quilting, educate the community about quilting, or provide a service to the community in Douglas County. Organized completion of project and provides information to the Historian.

Day Hospitality Committee – Coordinates with the Programs Committee to organize lunch for day meetings. Lunch options include: ordering food in, covered dishes, bring your own lunch, or going out to lunch if so desired. Arrives early to make coffee and set up. Recruits guild members to provide refreshments or assigns task. Ensures proper clean-up and cabinet secured.

Day Secretary- Takes minutes of the day meeting and provides them to the Newsletter Editor on a timely basis.

Day Telephone Committee - Calls members a few days prior to the day meeting to remind them of the meeting and provide any special reminders. If member reports illness or need, informs the Sunshine Committee. A current list of members to be called is provided by the membership committee.

Golden Scissors- Organizes show and tell by providing a display area, calling on members to speak about their quilts, passing out golden scissors for quilts meeting requirements and pins for smaller quilted items and collecting information cards about the quilts. Keeps the guild's scrapbook current.

Historian- Collects photographs, newspaper articles and other materials that will document the history of Cherokee Rose Quilters Guild and includes in scrapbook.

Library Committee- Maintains an accurate and organized catalogue of materials available for signing-out, keeps the library in a neat fashion easy to locate book, video/dvd or pattern desired by member. Purchases new books and encourages use of the materials.

Membership Committee- Dues are collected, information forms gathered and self-addressed stamped envelopes from members. Assembles and distributes the membership booklets and membership cards. The birthday list and mailing envelopes are sent to Newsletter Editor. Gives dues collected to the Treasurer. Greets members and visitors at each meeting and provides a tally of members in attendance along with the visitor names. Provides name badges, membership booklets, etc. to new members when they join and forwards their information to Newsletter Editor. Also, provides Telephone Committees with current member list for day and night meetings. Sends e-mail reminders for meetings and manages the Door Prize Drawing and the Fat Quarter Lottery.

Newsletter Editor- Collects information from various officers and committees and creates a paper and electronic newsletter. Prints copies of the newsletter and mails it to members using the envelopes provided. An electronic copy of the newsletter is forwarded for our website. Newsletter is mailed and posted on the website about a week before the day meeting each month so that members can prepare.

Night Hospitality Committee- Arranges the refreshments for the night meetings by signing up guild members. Arrives early to make coffee and set up. Ensures proper clean-up and cabinet secured.

Night Secretary- Takes minutes of the night meeting and provides them to the Newsletter Editor on a timely basis.

Night Telephone Committee- Calls members a few days prior to the night meeting to remind them of the meeting and provide any special reminders. If member reports illness or a need, informs the Sunshine Committee. A current list of members to be called is provided by the membership committee.

Photographer- Takes pictures at meetings of important activities and of members' Show n' Tell quilts. Makes two (2) copies of the photos and gives one to the Historian or to the Golden Scissors Committee, and one to the quilter. Also takes photos of events (speakers, workshops, etc.) for the Historian.

President- Presides over night meetings and Executive Committee Meetings (and day meeting if the Vice President is absent). Standing and Ad Hoc Committees are appointed by the President as the official representative of Cherokee Rose Quilters Guild. Guarantees the facility is available for guild meetings.

Programs Committee- Programs are scheduled for day and night meetings and for one or two workshops during the year. Contacts speakers/teachers, makes arrangements for their presentations/classes, including any equipment needed by the speaker/teacher. Gets supply lists from teachers and distributes to attendees, sets any fees needed to cover the cost of workshops or supplies and collects the fees. Gives monies collected to the Treasurer in timely manner. Program information is provided to Newsletter Editor and Publicity Committee.

January Bee

The January Bee will be at Irene Gardner's Home on January 18th.

We will make a "Fleece Scarf". Just bring scraps of fleece 7" X 40" and contrast or coordinating 7"X8". Rotary cutter and scissors is all you need. Hat pattern available at meeting. Lunch will be provided. Please let Irene know if you plan to come.

QTYW

(Quilt to you Wilt)

Come and have fun with us as we spend a day sewing and laughing and just having fun with our friends. February 17th from 9-9 at the church. See you there.

The New Manchester Memorial Quilt is on display at the Douglasville Public Library. It will be on display for the month of January.

Please bring all receipts to the January day meeting. Irene will have the checkbook so that you can be re-imbursed.

Standing and Ad Hoc Committees:

Quilt Till You Wilt Committee- Selects several Saturdays each year for QTYW. Secures dates availability with facility and plans the event. Information is provided to the Newsletter Editor and Publicity Committee. Obtains door prizes and organizes lunch and dinner. Fees that are collected from attendees will be submitted timely to Treasurer.

Sunshine Committee- Sends cards and makes calls to members experiencing illness or other needs and informs guild members at the meetings.

Treasurer- Has the responsibility for Cherokee Rose Quilters Guild funds. Is to keep accurate records of transactions, receives monies and deposits such in CRQG account. Checks are to be written for activities and reimbursement in a timely manner. Maintains and provides up-to-date budget expenditure information.

Vice President- Serves as the Chairperson of the day meeting and performs the duties of the President if absent. Assists the President in representing CRQG and acts as the Liaison (or appoints a liaison).

Ways and Means Committee- Is to raise necessary money to support the activities of CRQG. This includes starting new projects, with a guild vote if any expenditure is needed, continues or finishes up projects from the previous year. Examples of fund raising activities include the annual "Rauction", merchandise sales, raffles, etc. Any monies collected are given to the Treasurer with a detailed accounting.
