I had the pleasure of attending the Cherokee County Quilt Guild's first Quilt Show at the Cherokee County Arts Center. They had some truly beautiful quilts. My sister, Sharon, was impressed by wide array of design possibilities. (She does beautiful multimedia collage work; maybe she will expand to quilting.) As I walked around the room, I wondered what I would display at our future displays. I know many of you already have some beautiful quilts ready for display, but for me, I wonder if I can advance my own skill level enough to want to display a quilt with my name on it. (I only have one quilt that I've made; all the others have been gifts.) Well, I guess it's time to stop thinking of myself as a beginner and advance to the intermediate level. Since you are all very instrumental in my quilting development, don't be surprised when I hit you up for advice. After all you are my quilting heroes. I think the work of our guild members stands up to that of any other guild. The Arts Center show next year will be a great display. What are you going to show? I can hardly wait to see them all.

Summer Project for Community Service: A small group had been meeting to sew strip squares for future quilts for S.H.A.R.E. House recipients, but have disbanded for the summer. However, the group decided to continue making the squares on our own, and we will convene once more in the fall to sew the blocks together and make the quilts. If you have not been involved in this “sideline” project but would like to be, here's what to do: Cut 9” muslin squares (or any other cotton expendable fabric) as a background. Sew various strips from corner to corner diagonally. Then square up to a precise 8 1/2” block. If you're nervous about your squaring up abilities, just leave the 9” block and someone will square them up for you. Strip width 1” to 2” wide or thereabouts.

Committee News

• Beekeeper: Carolyn Chapman
 The May Mystery Trip was cancelled due to lack of participation. The June Bee will be June 17 at the home of Carolyn Chapman. She will share some antique lace collection as well as the story behind the inheritance. If you have some to show, please bring. Also bring along some hand work. A great lunch will be served.

Carpools will be available from Lee Road and Post Road. Call Carolyn to let her know if you plan to attend and if you will be in a carpool. 770-456-0442
 142 Cedars Glen Circle, Villa Rica
 Directions: I-20 West to Exit #24. Go north on Rt. 61 (right) and proceed through 2 traffic lights and 1 stop sign. Turn left. Go 1 mile to Cedars Glen Subdivision on right. Go past pool and turn right onto Cedars Glen Circle. Go up hill and this will be the second house on left when you bend to the left at the top of hill. Look for American flags.

We still need an August hostess.

The mystery trip is still in the future, probably October 16. Some have asked if you have to attend the bees in order to go on the trip. The answer is no. If you are a member you are welcome to come along. We have a great mystery and fine lunches at elegant places, so save your monies and look for a future confirmation of the date.

• Community Service: See front page request for pillows, and page 3 news of summer project.

• Newsletter/Web: Dina Greer, Bev Mahle, and Mary Graham. The newsletter is later than usual this month because of the editor being pressed into emergency service as a baby sitter. However, it is a welcome chore, and gives an absolutely unquestionable excuse to play!

• Quilt Til U Wilt: Phyl Schiwal, Diane Johnson, Sandi Capazzi. The next QTUW, originally scheduled for September has been cancelled because of need for space for a workshop.

• Library: Yvonne Smith.

BOOK REVIEW BABY QUILTS EDITED BY *LINDA NEUBAUER

I don't know about you but it seems that every pregnant young lady I've every met had their little bundle of joy in the last 2-6 weeks. I am so glad I was able to go to our guild's library for some quick ideas. Baby Quilts has 15 wonderful quilts that are quick and easy to put together in a short period of time. I think I'm going to start stockpiling quilts and reduce the size of my stash and prepare for the next bumper crop of new people.

• Sunshine: Sandra Wilson.

Remember these quilters and their families in your thoughts and prayers: Bobbie Spann had surgery and is now at home and doing okay. Kathy Eck's mother is under home hospice care. Vickie Hecht is undergoing chemo treatments.

Day Program: Picnic on the Road—June 12, 2008

We will meet at the church parking lot at 9am. Please park in the upper parking lot at the far end so as not to block parking for the Vacation Bible School parents.

Then we will carpool to the 1910 House Quilt Shop in Hogansville GA. We should arrive there about 10 am.

We will then meet Patti Lynch, the owner of the shop, she will tell us about her shop and the surrounding area. The shop is located one block from downtown so if you like to shop at antique stores or other shops there you are welcome to do so.

We will shop and then have lunch (catered by a local deli) The shop has a great wraparound porch that we will use when we eat. They will be putting out more tables for us.

We will leave the shop at 1-1:30 pm and return to the church parking lot so that those that carpooled can pick up their cars.

For those of you that paid for the workshop, I still have your checks and will return them to you the day of the picnic.

We need to have a head count of those who are planning to go. Please email Joany to let her know. Also, if any questions, email her at

How long have you been quilting? I made 2 quilts when I was 20 and then I continued to sew garments and my bridal dress. I sewed for others as well. I was on a tight budget so lots of fabric was not an option. I would go to a woolen mill and buy wool to make suits for work. I began quilting after joining CRQG. and I saw what the members were doing. I was overwhelmed at first and wondered with my work schedule how would I ever be able to do it. I thought there was no way I could cut those tiny pieces and sew them back together. Look at me now!!!

Who taught you how to quilt? Just a natural with my background in sewing.

What are your favorite techniques? I like most of it - I am a porcelain artist at heart so this follows with the love of color and working with my hands.

Favorite colors to work with? Pastels

Favorite fabrics? Batiks-I am fascinated with the designs and texture

Favorite quilt shop? Red Hen or Intown Quilters

If you sew by machine, what kind(s) do you use? I have a simplicity that I quilt on and a Kenmore that I love just to sew on. It is light weight and sews beautifully.

What inspires you to make a particular quilt most often? Fabric or an order or magazine inspiration.

Favorite quilting book or pattern? Most know I love red white and blue and star patterns. My daughter serving in military has given me many reasons to sew for the troops and her also.

On average, how many quilts do you make in a year? 8

Do you quilt your own quilts or do you send them out? Both.

What quilt related item(s) are you working on right now? Several baby quilts and several UFOs.

What other hobbies do you have? The china painting gets pushed further back and I want a longarm and am contemplating where to put it. Do I give up my guest room or my art room??? I also cast porcelain and there seems no time to do it. Right now the sewing goes along with my work schedule so maybe more time after retirement.

One way that quilting has changed your life? Well when I transferred to Georgia in 2000. I did not know anyone here. Now I have met wonderful folks thru the quilting. The women I have met have been so good to share and help me when I have had questions as I am eager to learn.

Are you on any committees with the CRQG? I am the Beekeeper and I always plan the mystery trips and I love doing that. Also I am chairperson of Clinton Farms Pioneer Days in October.

Feel free to tell us more about yourself and your family. I work for Norfolk Southern Railroad in Atlanta, Ga. I transferred here from St. Louis Mo. I have a son who is married in N. Illinois and a daughter in Ft. Lewis, WA who is a 1SG in US Army serving 18 years. I love to garden and paint. Cooking is in there also as I love to make my own creations with a secret ingredient. I also love to decorate and always have projects going at the house. Now can you see how I have time to quilt???

I make time for it at the end of the day. It is my way of unwinding. Also I believe there is a lot of love in a quilt so I figure I am sending out lots of love with my creations.

This is just a little reminder to all of us to show courtesy and respect when someone is speaking at our meetings or presenting a program. Let's remember to turn our cell phones off, or at least put them on silent if you're expecting an important call. If you must answer your phone, please step into another room or outside. During a meeting or program, please try to give your attention to the speaker. If you're not interested in what is being said at that time, please try to avoid distracting others as they might miss something that they want to hear .

Thanks from everyone!
