Adding fun along the way!

A Message from the President:

I want to thank Ann Groves and Patti Howell for volunteering to sew hanging sleeves on the two quilts we donated in 2004 to Sweetwater Park for their museum and auction. The museum grand opening day should be sometime in July. I also want to thank Sarah Sorenson, Caryl Knox, Patti Howell and Phyllis Smith for a job well down in demonstrating various techniques at our quilt camp. We have many wonderful members who cheerfully help out when needed and I'm sure it's appreciated by everyone. The selfless act of volunteering is the glue that keeps us active and strong as a guild.

Save July 29th for our second Quilt til you Wilt session. We will have more wonderful door prizes and no games! Now, the dog days of summer aren't quite here yet but we are planning a cool time for members with our Quilt Til You Wilt day. Be there and you may win a coveted prize, along with the completion of a UFO or two...and the company of our favorite quilting buddies! You know the drill...pay at the door and bring a covered dish, beverages will be provided.

Irene Gardner
