Presidents Message

A Message from the President:

At long last I have recovered enough to get back in the swing of things with my fellow quilters. The honest truth is YOU have been missed terribly. Seeing many of you at our last meeting was the best medicine for me. Thank you all again for your kindness, meals and most importantly your Prayers.

There have been many things that Phyl has handled without my input and my utmost appreciation for the job she has done during my recovery. She is an outstanding V.P. and has certainly stepped up to the plate. Thank you so very much Phyl.

I have missed so many meetings and great programs that I might ask for a private lesson on the N.Y. Beauty. So if you missed the "Sun Painting" Program, shame on you. We had a great time – and many of us had more than one opportunity to explore our creativity. Thanks Denise for all your extra efforts and bringing everything but your kitchen sink to Hunter Park.

We have many things happening in Cherokee Rose: Community Projects due by July 26th, Challenge Quilts due in September, Clinton Farms and the Fall Georgia Quilt Council in October. I want to emphasize that in October, Cherokee Rose Quilters Guild will be hosting the workshop by Sharon Schamber. Please see Phyl, the Registration Chairperson for more information.

There is much to do quilters. Are you ever bored? I hope many of you are creating goodies for sale at the Clinton Farms and Quilt Council. Please share any idea you have for an easy project. Carolyn says that $10.00 items sell well. We have an opportunity to show off our stuff and make a little dough. Got any ideas? Let us know your idea.

By October I will be looking for a Nominating Committee for elections, so put your thinking caps on as to who you would like to lead our guild and serve for 2008.

Happy days are here again!

Caryl

Cherokee Rose

Doreen Thornton motioned to open the meeting. Vice President Phyl Schiwal called the meeting to order. Phyl announced that today was our first "Premier Annual Picnic" and that we would be doing sun printing with Denise. The newsletter was corrected to change "even" to "seven" in the Vice President's Message. Irene moved to approve the minutes of the May day meeting as published and Joyce Trew seconded the motion. A big thank you went out to Sandra Wilson for the great work she has done. She always finds her own sub when needed and fills in for nights when needed. Also, a thank you of appreciation went to Phyl from Caryl and a gift of an organizer was given to her. Phyl wished a happy birthday to those ten quilters with birthdays in June.

The directions for these totes can be found at the following website: Bev's Country Cottage.

We cannot publish these directions on our website, but we are providing the link which is allowed.

We will have some printed copies available at our meetings. Marla has donated some material that is perfect for these totes. We will make this available at our meetings as long as it lasts. The deadline for completing this project will be the July night meeting. Please let us know if you have any questions or comments.

Vice Presidents Message

CARYL'S BACK. I symbolically took off my oversized quilting shoulder pads and rejoiced with the guild. We're back to sharing the joys and responsibilities of the quilting guild. I am so happy that Caryl has been able to return to work on a limited basis but in the guild we have her completely!

Caryl picked a grand time to rejoin us. She participated in the Premier Annual Picnic and thoroughly enjoyed the sun painting and participated numerous times after the initial class. Denise did a splendid job of teaching sun painting and provided the guild with fun supplies as numerous as any hobby store. Thanx, Denise. You'll have to get a larger van to carry the necessary supplies. The participating guild members really enjoyed it as evidenced by the fact they wanted to sun-paint three more times after Denise's first class!

As a guild I've seen us really grow this year in the dying, stamping, stenciling and painting of fabric. How exciting! Now, keep up the enthusiasm with the creation of your a MAZE ing quilt challenges due in September. There will be a unique prize for the quilter who uses some of her own hand-dyed, painted, stenciled or stamped fabric.

The programs and lessons offered by our Program Committee this year have been fabulous, fantastic and over the top! Thanx Robin, Doreen and Patti. Your grand efforts are appreciated by all guild members. Their combined talents grew us as a guild and exposed us to new and different ways to express the love we have for fabric and quilting.

I have nothing but praise for the quild: great food, grand location, fun beyond measure and fellowship I want to continue forever. May your bobbins always be full, phyl
