Urgent - Calling All Quilters:

We need additional quilts for display at the Red Cross Center! These quilts will be displayed through September.

We need about 5 more bed sized quilts and seven wall hangings.

Each quilt should have a hanging sleeve and sewn on label with the quilter's name.

Wall hangings should be no larger than 36" wide and no restriction on length. Bed size quilts should be single size minimum.

There is a disclaimer that needs to be completed that we did not know about previously. It will be emailed Wednesday to everyone.

The Arts Center would also like to have a brief description of the quilt and what inspired you to make it.

Call Debbie any evening this week or any time over the weekend at 404-643-6252 to pick up your quilt or discuss where and how you need to drop it off. Patti is going out of town on Wednesday.

We voted to participate on this project, now we need to participate and make it the best it can be.

—Debbie Hirschman

S.H.A.R.E. HOUSE

This month's items requested for S.H.A.R.E. House are paper plates, plastic cutlery, and plastic drinking cups, the kind you would use on a picnic. Thanks to all who donated pillows last month.

ANOTHER GOOD PROJECT

Bring your machines and sewing supplies and prepare to help make tote bags at Joyce Hill's on July 31 for S.H.A.R.E. House residents. Fabric has been donated for this project. If you have it to spare, we could also use pastel or cream-colored fabric for lining, and also batting. Pattern is provided.

SUMMER PROJECT

Don't forget—keep making those strip blocks. We need 9" muslin squares with strip piecing corner-to-corner, then squared up to 8.5". We'll get together in the fall and put them all together to make quilts for S.H.A.R.E. House residents.

Joyce will be serving lunch, so call her and let her know you're coming so she will know how many to prepare for. This is the last Thursday of the month. You folks with email will be getting a reminder closer to the 31st.

Help cut out or sew, or both!

Committee News

• Beekeeper: Carolyn Chapman

Note from Dina: The June Bee was hosted by Carolyn. You know all about quilt till you wilt, but we were stuffed till we puffed! Not only did she feed us wonderfully well, but she showed us her collection of antique laces and linens. She also let us see her sewing room, which has new storage cabinets and great organization. Yes, we're envious, Carolyn.

The July Bee will be hosted by Kathy Eck on July 17. Bring sewing scissors. Call her for directions and to let her know how many to expect for lunch.

• Sunshine: Sandra Wilson

There have been several surgeries this month: Debora Brooks, Phyl Schiwal, and Jane Wilding. Please remember these ladies as they are recuperating. Also, Vickie Hecht continues her chemo treatments.

• Publicity: Sandra Wilson

Hospital Quilts—We will be passing the sign up sheet around at our next meetings for additional quilts to display at WellStar Douglas. We need one quilt for August and then one each for October through December. We need two quilts for January. You may sign-up at the meeting or email Caryl Knox and let her know when you will have a quilt to share.

Library Display—We will be doing a display at the Douglasville Library in September. We need quilts and quilting and sewing supplies. It's a collage-type display in a locked glass case. Please let Sandra Wilson know if you can help set up and/or take down the display on Tuesday, September 2nd, and if you have any items that we can use for the display. Barbara, Vickie Pruitt and Mary have already volunteered to help. Please be sure to label anything that you send.

Happiness doesn't come from doing what we like to do but from liking what we have to do.

—Wilfred Peterson

• Ways and Means: Dori Holt

We have a great book of quilt patterns (a $24 value) for raffle. The book will be raffled off at the July night meeting. Tickets are $1 each or $5 for 6 tickets. If any of you quilters have some scraps laying around we could use those in our "scrap tote". Also, remember the sewing machine will be raffled off at the Christmas party. You still have plenty of time to buy tickets at $5 each or 6 tickets for $20. There will be some other great things coming up through the coming months as well.

• Programs: Linda Herren, Joan Orsi

The day program will be on Trapunto, by Pam Cornutt. If you plan to stay for lunch, please bring your own. The guild will supply drinks.

Night program is Christmas in July, by Stone Cottage Quilts.

Supply list for Trapunto Class:

- High loft 100% polyester batting (16" square is fine for class)
- Pattern (teacher will bring copyright-free rose to class or you may choose your own)
- Water-soluble thread
- Sharp scissors (some like blunt-tips; others sharp)
- Water-soluble marker that will show on fabric
- Neutral thread (will remain inside quilt)
- Top (16" square muslin is ok)
- Backing (same)
- Batting—(16" square is fine for class) - cotton, blend, all poly, or wool
- Thread for quilting (top and bobbin) cotton, blend, monofilament, or hand quilting
- Pins to baste quilt sandwich
- Sewing machine (foot pedal, cord, and feet)
- Regular sewing supplies (seam ripper, scissors, etc.)

Teacher does not care how many people take the class as long as all have space to sew.

Recipes served at Carolyn Chapman's bee:

RITZ CRACKER DESSERT:

- 6 egg whites
- 2 cups sugar
- 60 Ritz crackers crumbled
- 2 tsp vanilla
- 1.5 cup chopped pecans
- 1 small carton cool whip
- 2 small cartons strawberries sliced.

Beat egg whites stiff and add sugar. Add nuts, crackers, vanilla. Pour into 9x12 pan and bake 350 degrees for 25 min. Cool, put strawberries on top and spread cool whip and top with shredded hershey if desired .

SAUSAGE ROLL:

- 1 loaf frozen bread - thawed and rolled out
- 1 lb Tennessee Pride sausage browned and drained well
- 2 cup grated cheese Monterey and cheddar
- 2 eggs well beaten (save a little for top)
- Peppers and onion if desired.

Mix sausage, cheese, & eggs and spread mixture on the bread. Roll up and place on foil covered baking pan. Brush top with remainder of egg mixed with a little water and bake at 375 for about 20-25 minutes.

HERE'S AN IDEA

If you're not doing it already, why not join up with another guild member or two and carpool to meetings. With gas costing what it does, and not apt to be getting any cheaper, why not save a few $$$ by riding together? Admittedly, this might be a problem on those days when you have to load your car with your machine and all that goes with it. But many times we're just hauling ourselves and a few items.

HERE'S ANOTHER IDEA

Why not give the clean-up crew a hand at the end of meetings? Most of us help to make the mess, so most of us should share in the responsibility of cleaning it up.
