Refreshments will be provided by Donna Blake, Gary Hitchcock, Janie Probst, Linda Johnston, and Pat Oliver. Thanks folks for filling our bellies with such yummy treats!!!

Quilt till you Wilt

If you were not one of the 16 members who participated in this awesome event, boy did you miss out!!! We partied from 9am to 9pm with our own DJ – "Dina Greer" who played every music variety you could imagine. The food brought was sensational and some recipes are included in this newsletter. Freddy the Frog hopped around to those that had to do the frog stitch (Rip-it! Rip-it!) Some even had him several times. He resides now at the home of Karen Campbell.

We were awarded prizes for the following:

Oldest – Martha Spencer	Youngest – Kimberly Laderoute
Sewing Barefoot – Joy Wegand	Working on Strip Quilt – Marla
Most Pair of Scissors (7) – Irene	Most Rulers (10) Mary Graham
Hand Quilting – Dina Greer	Winning Chair – Mary Graham
Mr. "Rip It" – Karen Campbell	Oldest sewing machine- Mary
Lucky #8 – Pat Lacont	Sewing w/Purple Thread-Robin B
Wearing sewing item around neck – Mary Graham

GRAND PRIZE WINNER – KAREN CAMPBELL

When this event is announced in 2006....be there or just be SQUARE!

Challenge Quilts will be due at the night meeting (August 25th) for those who do not attend the day meeting. Otherwise these quilts are due for the September 8th day meeting. We will be showing these quilts for both the day and night meetings for the month of September. YOU STILL HAVE TIME!!

Karen Campbell reports that for the Community project there are still unclaimed quilts to be made. It is suggested that those without time to make a quilt could donate fabric for others to make quilts. These quilts will be collected in September. HERE AGAIN ... YOU STILL HAVE TIME!!

Nominating Committee

Time marches on!! And helping Cherokee Rose keep up with the calendar is your newly appointed Nominating Committee: Karen Campbell, Martha Spencer and Doreen Thornton. The by-laws call for this group, appointed by the President, to present a slate of officers to the membership in October, so that elections can be held in November. The Nominating Committee has also been asked to fill Committee positions, too. Be ready to accept your 2006 position for Cherokee Rose Quilters Guild.

Bee Hive News

August 4th. 6:30pm....Evening Bee will be held at the home of Dina Greer. Please contact Dina @ 770-949-4563 if you plan on attending our Bee.

August 18th. 9:30am....Day Bee will be at the home of Irene Gardner. Lunch will be provided. Please contact Irene @ 770-949-7216 if you plan on attending this Bee, because she is providing the lunch.

If you haven't attended any of our Bees lately, then you are missing out on a really great time. Pack up your current project and bring it along and let us see what you're working on these days.

Barbara Dieges, the speaker at the Georgia Quilt Council Fall Convention, will be hosted by Cherokee Rose Quilt Guild for an all-day workshop on Thursday, October 8. If you are already a Council Member, you will be mailed registration information. You must be a Council Member to attend. If you'd like to join, visit www.georgiaquiltcouncil.com for the membership form. This is the second time we have hosted a GQC workshop, and the first one with Linda Jenkins was just great! So plan now to attend this one--and the Convention in Newnan, too! For information, contact Martha Spencer.

Never Ending Scrap Quilt

The assembly line method of piecing this chimney in the corner log cabin block is fast and efficient. It is like eating peanuts, you can't make just one! This log cabin has an unusual "chimney". The students will also have fun trying to decide how to set all of the blocks they make!

Knowledgeable beginner to advanced quilters.
Sewing machine required.
Materials fee: $5.00 for the pattern

Cherokee Rose will set up a table at the Fall GA Quilt convention to sell items donated by our members. Items mentioned at the night meeting were: seat cushions, pocket tissue covers, aprons, casserole covers, etc. Small wallhangings or lap size quilts are always acceptable. This is another project by our ways and means committee to build up our treasurer. Items will be due September night meeting.

AS ALWAYS ... YOU STILL HAVE TIME!!
