A quilt sewn together with utmost care quilted with love is a treasure to share.

A Message from the President:

We really have a wonderful group of quilters! We have accomplished so much this month. Our nominating committee has been working hard to bring us a responsible group of members who are committed to step up and keep the ball rolling for our guild to continue running smoothly. Our Gift Wrap challenge was a resounding success with the biggest participation ever! And our committee's have done fabulous jobs; from lighting our quilt passion with their programs, our Bees, and our wonderful Challenges! A special thank you to our Editor for keeping us timely updated every month, and our Treasury is in good hands, our Show'n'tells run smoothly, Hospitality keeps us fed well, Sunshine keeps us up with members who need good wishes and warm hugs. Membership is awesome!

I'm so very proud (you know who you are!) of all those members who make our guild the fun and success it is today. Our September night meeting was awesome and we keep getting better and better! And we still have more wonderful events to look forward to...QTYW, Elections, Seasonal Parties, whoopee! We're doing great! Everyone pat themselves on the back!

Keep on Stitching,

Irene Gardner

2006 Challenge Quilts

22 Cherokee Rose members presented their challenge quilts at the September night meeting, explaining to the large crowd how they drew their inspiration from the wrapping paper they got by chance early in the year. We heard some wonderful and amazing stories, sympathized with those who started off with Ninja Turtles and race cars, and nodded approval at those who took the opportunity to try something totally new (even if they vowed never to do it again!). When all the votes were counted, Phyl Schiwal won the grand prize for her crazy-quilt inspired Italian quilt, complete with red tile roof fabric and quilted grape clusters. Phyl used her celebrity status to draw Mary Graham's name from the "hat" and Mary went home with a lifetime supply of wrapping paper.

In addition to Phyl and Mary, the other quilters who put their creative selves to work on this challenge were: Ann Groves, Carolyn Chapman, Caryl Knox, Debbie Hirshman, Denise Allee, Dina Greer, Donna Walker, Ellen Monroe, Irene Gardner, Jessie Quick, Joany Orsi, Joyce Trew, Kathy Eck, Lee Hazelwood, Lynn Tam, Marla Tatum, Pat Oliver, Patti Howell, Rachel Pheneuf, and Robin Meyer
