treasure to share.

A Message from the President:

First of all, I'd like to thank all our Executive Board, our committee heads and our many volunteers for helping me run our guild like a well-oiled sewing machine. I am grateful for all your input and help. I truly could not have done this job without everyone of you there backing me up. It feels so good to have such great participation from our members.

January brings us winter chills and quilting thrills as our 2007 Executive Officers and committees don their thinking caps, roll up their sleeves and start working hard to bring us many fun quilting experiences. The New Year also brings us changes and growth. We are delighted with our new meeting place and with the way we have grown!!

See y'all at our Christmas Party !
Merry Christmas,
Irene Gardner, Guild President

From Ways and Means.....Dina Greer

As outgoing chairperson of Ways & Means, I want to thank everyone for their support throughout the year. I would like to initiate a new fund-raising source for the new W&M Committee to get them started. I have registered with a website that buys old cell phones with the profit going to whatever group that is designated. I have designated Cherokee Rose for this purpose. So if you have any old unused cell phones, bring them to the January day or night meetings. Dina will collect them and get the money to the treasurer. She will turn over this moneymaking endeavor to the new chairperson.
