

Cherokee Rose Quilt Guild Minutes – Night Meeting, April 27, 2006

Irene called the meeting to order. April birthdays were recognized.

Program — Patti: The May day meeting will be a search for the ugliest fabric. The May night meeting will be a trunk show and a lecture on the X-block ruler by Linda Patton from the Quilt Station in Hiram.

Newsletter — Marla: Info for the April newsletter is due Saturday, April 29.

Hospitality — Debbie Hirshman thanked those who brought refreshments.

Ways and Means — Dina: Two items to be raffled off.

Librarian — Kimberly: Library to be catalogued over the summer.

Sunshine — Caryl Knox had carpal tunnel surgery last Tuesday. Barbara had tests. Joyce Trew having surgery next Monday.

Treasurer's Report — Robin Banks: March and April reports.

Membership — Denise: Fat quarters were won by Irene. Next month's fat quarters will be florals. Door prizes were awarded.

Publicity — Robin Meyer: New brochures. Quilt display at Douglasville library branch will be taken down on Friday, April 28.

Challenge Quilts — Robin Meyer: Sign up to participate.

Day Bee — Carolyn: Mystery trip, May 18th. Meet at Lee Road at 9:30.

Quilt 'Til You Wilt — May 20th and July 29th.

Thank the Bank — Irene: Christmas wall hanging. Need 10 people to sign up.

Irene received an invitation to the guild to attend a "Homecoming Party" at the Douglasville Armory on June 3rd.

Denise helped clean out Ann Coppinger's craft room after she moved to assisted living. There was more stuff for sale. Benefits to go to guild.

After Show and Tell, the meeting was adjourned for the program. Our speaker for tonight is in the hospital. Ellen graciously agreed to do a trunk show with her many quilts.

Respectfully submitted, Sandra Wilson (for Joy Wegand)
