

Cherokee Rose Quilters Guild
Day Meeting
January 12, 2006

The January day meeting was called to order by Vice President Doreen Thornton. Doreen introduced the other 2006 Officers: Irene Gardner, President; Joy Wegand, Night Secretary; Sandra Wilson, Day Secretary; Robin Banks, Treasurer. The November minutes were approved as printed. Those members with January birthdays were congratulated.

The next item of business was the approval of the 2006 budget. Rita Rosenthal moved that the 2006 budget be approved; Donna Blake seconded. There were 28 yes votes and none opposed.

Committee Reports:

Sunshine (Louise Moore) — Cathy Russo's father has cancer; Phyl's husband is taking violin lessons; Larue fell in November; Virginia Bennett has breast cancer complicated by heart problems.

Telephone-Day (Myra Wade) — Everyone called.

Publicity — Robin Meyer is working on publicity for the presentation of the Community Service quilts to the families of the Guard members on Sunday, January 22, 2006.

Ways and Means (Dina Greer) — A sewing machine trolley will be raffled. Tickets are $1.00. There are also AQS posters to be raffled. Tickets also $1.00.

Historian (Patti Howell) — Book is available. Need pictures for Thank the Bank and the Community Service project.

Newsletter (Marla Tatum) — Denise reported for Marla that this is a transition month. Next month those who requested the newsletter online will receive an email notice when the newsletter is available.

Program (Barbara Stevens, Patti Howell, Phyllis Smith) — Barbara reported that the January night meeting will be a program featuring Flavin Glover. The February day meeting will feature a program by Taffy McLaughlin. Also, Barbara will teach us how to make a valentine wall hanging. A workshop by Sharon Schamber will be held on March 3rd. Details for all will be in the newsletter.

Membership (Denise Allee, Caryl Knox, Cindi Schroeder) — There were 29 members present and one visitor. Denise announced that there would be an Open House at Heritage Quilt Shop in Newnan on Sunday, January 15th. Membership packets were handed out. Door prizes were given out.

Photographer-Day — Rebekah Bobell

We still need committee members for the following committees: Thank the Bank, Beekeeper, Night Photographer, Show and Tell (to help Linda Johnston) and Day and Night Hospitality.

Dina Greer and Donna Blake volunteered for the Thank the Bank committee and Barbara Stevens and Donna Blake volunteered for Day Hospitality.

Phyllis Smith announced that the Georgia Quilt Council challenge quilts are on display at the Carrollton Cultural Arts Center until February 4th and passed out a schedule for the show through 2007. The West Georgia Quilt Guild also has a quilt exhibit at the Cultural Arts Center until February 6th.

Karen Campbell reported on the 2005 Community Service Project. The quilts will be presented to the families at the Armory on Church Street on Sunday, January 22nd, at 2:00 p.m. All are invited to attend.

The blue and white fat quarter lottery was won by Karen Campbell. February fat quarters will be pinks. Before Show and Tell Patti reminded us of the new rule for the golden scissors charm — the completed quilt must have a minimum measurement of 220” around the perimeter of the quilt.

Meeting adjourned. A review of Show and Tell and programs in 2005 was presented by Martha Spencer and Caryl Knox following the business meeting.
