

Cherokee Rose Quilters Guild
Day Meeting
July 13, 2006

Vice President Doreen Thornton called the meeting to order. Kathy Eck made a motion to approve the minutes as printed and Irene seconded.

Publicity — Robin Meyer: brochures available.

Telephone — Myra: everyone called.

Hospitality — Barbara: August lunch will be at the Blue Willow Inn.

Ways and Means — Dina: Two bags to be raffled today. There are new scraps and a new item. Fons & Porter subscriptions still available.

Day Bee — Kathy Eck: July bee will be at Robin Banks' house.

Sunshine — Louise: Louise's brother-in-law passed away.

Library — Robin Meyer: There are new books and patterns available. New system for check out. There will only be one set of cards for both books and patterns. Then check out card will be filed under quilter's last name to make it easier to check in when book is returned.

Thank the Bank — Irene: Red/green wreath wall hanging due in September.

Quilt Til You Wilt — Irene: July 29th. $10. Bank may start charging more.

President Irene — Is anyone having trouble getting newsletter online? This will be discussed at Board meeting in August.

Challenge Quilts — Robin Meyer: Wrapping paper still available.

Treasurer — Robin Banks: No changes since printed in newsletter.

Community Service — Cathy Russo: Blankies due in September. Need more people to sign up.

Programs — Barbara: Robin Banks will teach locker hooking today and Barbara Rainwater will present a program on color theory at the July night meeting. The August day meeting will be a field trip to the new quilt shop in Conyers and lunch at the Blue Willow Inn. The August night meeting will be a Christmas in August program presented by the new owner of Tiny Stitches. She will have kits available for purchase. The September day meeting will be a Fractured Bargello quilt taught by Joany Orsi and the September night meeting will be our challenge quilts and ice cream social. The October night meeting will be the Rauction.

Doreen congratulated those members with July birthdays.

Membership — Denise: 33 members and 4 visitors present. Animal print fat quarter lottery won by Dorene Bickford. August fat quarters will be primary colors. Door prizes.

Raffle — Dina: Bag donated by Marla won by Susan Fisher and green bag won by Joany Orsi.

After Show and Tell, the meeting was adjourned for the locker hooking program.

Respectfully submitted,
Sandra Wilson