

Cherokee Rose Quilters Guild
Night meeting June 23, 2005

Meeting called to order at 7 PM by Joy Wegand with 24 members and 1 visitor present. Robin and Dina are out of town.

Minutes were approved as printed. No treasurers report available.

It was determined that there is no business for a board meeting so one will NOT be held in July.

Report on the Fall Convention. There are now 5 guilds working on the convention.

Program. Unless there is more interest in the workshop 7-16 it will be cancelled.

Betty Kaiser will do the 14th meeting. July PM meeting will be Christmas in July with 4-5 demos of Christmassy things.

Newsletter will be done this weekend.

Hospitality nights, Barbara will be calling next month.

Bees night 7-7 at Irene's, days 7-21 at Joyce's.

Community service has clipping of injury to one of "our" soldiers. Still have quilts to be claimed.

Challenge quilt rules. A thread runs through it. To be a mini quilt unless want to make quilt for Community service quilt. To be at least 12" on a side up to 45". Cannot be square and must have thread embellishment and be done in a technique not used before by the quilter. We are to keep our quilts a secret until submitted.

Quilt til you wilt will be 7-30. To bring covered dish for lunch and dinner will be leftovers or order out.

Announcement of a quilt Trunk show 7-15. Free with Guild membership card but need reservation. Information to be in newsletter.

No reports from Treasurers, Publicity, Sunshine, Day phone, Day hospitality committees

Joy requested donations of fall colored fat quarters for Sweetwater Assisted Living residents to make a quilt.

Fat quarters for next month are batik.

Fat quarters, door prizes were awarded and Show and Tell was held. Meeting adjourned at 7:37.

Submitted by Karen Campbell