

Cherokee Rose Quilters Guild
Day Meeting
June 8, 2006

Vice President Doreen Thornton called the meeting to order. Ellen made a motion to approve the minutes as printed and Rita seconded.

Day Bee — Kathy Eck: June bee will be at Phyllis Smith's house.

Ways and Means — Dina: Quilt Pro will be raffled today. New items are a purse and a quilt bag. Cookbooks and pins are still available. Also, Fons & Porter magazines, either new or renewal subscriptions, can be purchased through the guild. Don't forget the scrap basket.

Programs — Phyllis: Today's meeting will be a workshop on the X-block from Linda at Quilt Station. The June night meeting will be quilt camp. Robin Banks will teach locker hooking at the July day meeting and Barbara Rainwater will present a program on color theory at the July night meeting. Barbara: The August day meeting will be a field trip to the new quilt shop in Conyers and lunch at the Blue Willow Inn. The August night meeting will be a Christmas in August program presented by the new owner of Tiny Stitches. The September day meeting will be our ugly quilts and the September night meeting will be our challenge quilts.

Hospitality — Barbara: Bring your school lunch. Cookies and drinks furnished.

Sunshine — Louise: Dorene Bickford will be home on Friday. Joyce Hill back today with a word on breast cancer. Robby from Quiltz is having tests.

Thank the Bank — Dina for Jennie: Wreath wall hanging. Need to make ten. Instructions available.

Community Service — Cathy Russo: Blankie project. Instructions in April newsletter. Sign up now. Due by September. Goal is 20.

Doreen congratulated those members with June birthdays.

Membership — Denise: 25 members and 2 visitors present. Neutral fat quarter lottery won by Phyl. July fat quarters will be animal prints. Door prizes.

After Show and Tell, the meeting was adjourned for the X-block program.

Respectfully submitted,
Sandra Wilson
