

Cherokee Rose Quilters Guild
Day Meeting
March 9, 2006

Vice President Doreen Thornton called the meeting to order. Phyl made a motion to approve the minutes as printed in the newsletter and Caryl seconded. The minutes were approved. Irene corrected the date for the next board meeting as printed in the newsletter to March 23rd. There was no old business to discuss. March birthdays were recognized.

Newsletter — Let Marla know if not receiving the newsletter. There are some problems still with printing the on-line newsletter.

Telephone — Myra (Day) reported that everyone was called or emailed.

Day Hospitality — For the March meeting we will go to the High Museum to see the Quilts of Gee's Bend and to Mary Mac's for lunch.

Ways and Means — Dina thanked members for loosening deep pockets. Ott light to be raffled at night meeting. Still can order Fons & Porter subscriptions. Book fair in May. Sewing tote to be raffled at a later date.

Library — Robin Meyer reported that the committee is sorting, updating catalog and donating items to book fair.

Publicity — Robin Meyer reported that website is being updated. The brochure has been redone. We will exhibit quilts at the Douglasville Library in April.

Challenge Quilts 2006 — Robin Meyer said that we would draw inspiration from 8" square of wrapping paper.

Sunshine — Joyce Hill undergoing treatment. Ann Coppinger moved to assisted living. Virginia Bennett beginning treatment. Thanks for prayers for Queenie's sister.

Day Bee — Kathy Eck reported that day bees meet the third Thursday of each month. The March 16th bee will be at Irene's. The night bees have been suspended for now.

Treasurer's Report — Robin Banks gave report. Stands as read.

Community Service — Cathy Russo reported on suggestions: lap quilts or walker bags for nursing home, ugly quilts for homeless, crayon quilts for Boys' and Girls' Club, baby quilts for Pregnancy Resource Center, blankie project for Alzheimer's patients, donation or raffle quilt, scholarship. Day group "voted" to do the blankie project.

Quilt 'Til You Wilt — Irene reported that the dates will be May 20th and July 29th.

Thank the Bank — Suggestions soon.

Programs — March night/dice game, April day/Gee's Bend quilt show, April night/program on borders by Norene Goard, May day/search for ugliest fabric, May night/Linda Patton trunk show, June day/technique.

Membership — Denise reported 28 members present. Yvonne Smith is newest member. April fat quarters are purple and/or green. March day fat quarter winner was Barbara Stevens.

After Show and Tell the meeting was adjourned for the batik class by Taffy McLaughlin.

Respectfully submitted, Sandra Wilson
