

Cherokee Rose Quilters Guild
Day meeting May 12, 2005

May 12, 2005 meeting was called to order at 9:38AM by Dina Greer. There were 30 members, 1 new member present.

Minutes and treasurers reports were accepted as printed.

Newsletter needs to get information in early this month. If people are not getting newsletters it might be because they haven't turned in envelopes.

Website will have a password-protected area with rose as the user name and needle as the password.

Day hospitality will have a prepared meal for about $3.00.

Ways and Means have a raffle to be drawn at the night meeting. Yard sale is rescheduled for 6/4 at Donna's. Directions in March newsletter.

Sunshine- - Marla will be having surgery the end of the month.

Community project - Still need people to sign up for about 28 quilts and to get labels. Plan to present them to the families in September. Discussion was held about having a table at the Sweetwater Park the weekend of June 18 and 19. As that is Father's day weekend no one felt we could do it this year.

GA Quilt Council- - must be a member of the council to attend the workshop 10-6 but not the meeting 10-8. Will need volunteers to help with door prizes. The committee will have more information after their next meeting.

Program reminded workshop with Robbie Leeper is 5-21. June day meeting is Hollyhocks taught by Robin M.

Thank the bank - It was suggested we might make tree skirts this year. The decision will be made by the committee.

Bees as usual.

No reports from publicity, telephone or library committees.

Fat quarters were won by Anne Coppinger. Next month fat quarters will be beach related.

Meeting adjourned at 10:10.
