

Cherokee Rose Quilters Guild
Day meeting November 10, 2005

The 11-10-05 day meeting was called to order at 9:35 AM by Dina. Minutes and treasurers reports were approved as printed.

Denise reported the Christmas party will be 12-1. People were asked to indicate if they would be able to attend and what dish they will bring. Guild will be providing a ham and someone is cooking a turkey. If people choose they can bring a non-perishable food item and/or an unwrapped toy. The items will be given to some charitable group in the county.

No reports from the newsletter, phone committee, night hospitality, historian or library committees.

Doreen reported our day hospitality was a bit of a celebration and mentioned there is still a need for someone(s) to coordinate day hospitality next year.

Ways and means indicated nearly 700 dollars was earned at the rauction.

Sunshine reported that Joy's husband has been having eye surgery. Joyce's brother had died as did Caryl's father. Barbara's daughter has miscarried and LaRue is having heart tests.

No bees until 12-15 at 9AM at Joyce's.

Community project requested finished quilts be brought to the evening meeting and no later that at the Christmas party.

Thank the banks still needs 9 tree skirts ASAP.

Publicity we will be trying to do a display in the main library in February.

Nominating committee presented the slate of officers for 2006. Irene for president, Doreen T. for day chair, Robin continue at treasurer and Joy continue as night secretary and Sandra will serve as day secretary. The slate was accepted by the 26 members present.

Membership reminded people to get in dues and envelopes unless opting to get the newsletter by email.

Fat quarter lottery, door prized and show and tell were held. Fat quarters for Dec. will be red or green, not necessarily Christmas fabric.

Meeting was adjourned at 10:20 AM to a program of Hunter Star taught by Denise.

Submitted by Karen Campbell, Day secretary.
