

Cherokee Rose Quilters Guild
Day Meeting
October 12, 2006

President Irene called the meeting to order in the absence of Doreen. Joyce Hill made a motion to approve the minutes as printed and Mary Graham seconded. Irene congratulated those with October birthdays.

Reports from Irene:

Georgia Quilt Convention — October 14 — Susan Fisher has gotten door prize to take to convention.

Clinton Farms — October 21 — requested donation of quilts to display — quilts can be sold.

Quilt 'Til You Wilt — November 4 — $10 per person — 9a-9p — bring covered dish to share — Lavender Mountain Quilt Guild has seven members planning to join us — to be held at new meeting place.

Budget — please turn in expenses and budget items and any information for next year's budget. Budget will be compiled and printed in next newsletter.

New Meeting Location — Union Grove Baptist Church. Denise will mail directions to members the week of the night meeting.

Committee Reports:

Day Telephone — Myra called.

Day Hospitality — Barbara: Baked potato bar today. We will take guest out to lunch in November.

Ways and Means — Dina: No raffle today. We still have scraps and magazine subscriptions and cookbooks and pins. Maetha from Tiny Stitches donated a beautiful quilt to be used to raise money for the guild.

Sunshine — Louise: Nothing to report.

Rauction — Kathy Eck: Bring items to her as soon as possible for the October night meeting. Will meet at Kathy's house on October 23 to assemble items for auction.

Beekeeper — Kathy Eck: The October meeting will be at Joany Orsi's at 9:30. Kathy has surprise for bee hostesses. Last bee for this year.

Thank the Bank — Irene: Due at the November night meeting.

Christmas Party — December 7.

Newsletter — Technical difficulties this month.

Programs — Barbara: Patty Howell will teach a spiral Christmas tree skirt today. The October night meeting will be the Rauction. The November day meeting will be a trunk show and lecture by Jillian Clark from England entitled "My Quilts and How I Made Them." The November night meeting will be a lecture on tessellations by Debbie Kratovil.

Community Service — Sign list if you worked on the museum quilt.

Publicity — Irene will contact chairperson regarding new meeting place.

Nominating Committee — Patty: Slate for new officers: President – Caryl Knox, Vice President – Phyl Schiwal, Day Secretary – Sandra Wilson, Night Secretary – Joy Wegand, Treasurer – Irene Gardner. (Treasurer is a change from what is listed in the newsletter.) List passed around to sign if interested in volunteering for a committee.

Membership — Denise: Welcomed new members from September. Time to pay dues. Free envelopes for mailing. Will label, address and mail newsletter for $5. There were 30 members and 1 visitor present. Black and white fat quarter lottery won by Ellen Monroe. Anything goes for November fat quarters. Door prizes.

After Show and Tell, the meeting was adjourned for the workshop.

Respectfully submitted,
Sandra Wilson
