President's Message

Happy New Year !!

10 of us braved the ice to attend the Guild meeting Thursday morning Jan 12. If you could get out of your subdivision, the roads were pretty clear. Albertha told us how to make her quilted bag and I finished mine on Saturday! She has agreed to do the lesson again in February and if you miss that she probably could be talked into doing it again at the next QUILT-TIL-U-WILT.

We still have no Ways and Means Chair and the two members of that committee work and can only attend the night meetings. Pairs of people on the Executive Board have agreed to take a month and prepare something to be sold or raffled off. We still need people for Sep, Oct, and Nov so see how things go for the next couple of meetings and see if you can volunteer.

My turn is June and I'd like your help. I want to raffle off quilt blocks and I'd like lots of you to make a block for that raffle. I'll demo the block at the next several meetings. It's string pieced and made from scraps. Cut a pre-washed piece of muslin 13" square. Lay one strip of fabric right side up on the diagonal. Lay the next piece right side down on the first piece, sew, and iron open. Repeat in both directions. Turn block over and trim using the muslin as a guide. The strips can be any width - usually 1.5" to 3". Looks better if strips vary in width. I will also raffle off the quilt bag I made. Albertha says they sell for $80.

Hope you got lots of quilting done while you were iced in. Bev Mahle re-organized her sewing room.

♥ Georgia Quilt Council ♥

Don't forget to renew your membership or join the Georgia Quilt Council by February 12th to be included in the new Membership Directory.

It's also time to register for the 2011 Spring Convention, "Sail Into Quilting" to be held on Saturday, March 19 in Cumming.

Featured will be quilter, author, teacher and fabric designer Karen Combs. Forms for membership and convention registration can be found at

Minutes of the January Night Meeting, January 27, 2011

Submitted By Jeanne Andersen, Night Secretary

The Meeting was called to order by the President, Broach Winsley.

Treasurer's Report- $3947.77 current balance.

Minutes- Motion was made and seconded to accept the minutes as reported on line.

Budget- The proposed budget for 2011 was voted on and accepted .

Important message- Due to the weather for the January Day Meeting, the program will be presented at the February meeting. This is Albertha and her large tote pattern. Check the newsletter for details.

Membership- there are 39 members present and 3 guests. Welcome all.

Fat quarter drawing- The red fat quarters were won by Gail Ford

DOOR PRIZES - three were won by Carol Knox, Brenda Senn, and Annie Kellem. Congratulations to all.

Special Note-- You can submit a picture of yourself or have Charlie take one to be placed on the website so others can get to put a name with a face. It has been noted that some of us are new to the Guild and many of us see each other only at the meetings and it is hard to get to place a face and name together.

Community service- Jane has chosen the Head Start program this year . We are committed to provide 25 quilts, but she has challenged us to provide many more. These are for 4-5 year old boys and girls. The deadline will be August so we have plenty of time to get something together. The samples were two color, 6 1/2 " blocks. 3/4 yard of each fabric. We have that in our stashes !! You can pick another pattern and have at it. Let's have fun and make this as successful as years past.

Hospitality- Sign up sheet in the back of the room. "Sign up and eat, or don't"-- Charlene Shanks... Please call and let me know if you will not be able to bring your food item... Thanks.

Future raffles- Since we don't have a chairman for ways and means , some of the board members have taken on the task of providing an item for a number of the meetings coming up. These will be announced ahead of time. Come prepared to buy your tickets... and someone will win!

Examples-- June will be a raffle of a Big Tote mad by Broach-- this is from Albertha's tote program. and maybe some other goodies. July-- Dory and Phyl are having a SALE, Members rent table space and sell items of their choice. The table rental goes to the guild, and the proceeds of the items sold go to each individual member. More on these as time approaches.

Bee- the last bee was attended by 20 and they practiced insertion of a zipper and made pencil cases. Next month it will be at Jenny Hollis'-Valentine Brunch, and a demonstration of a simple table runner.

Programs - Tonight Tammy and Julia of Outside the Lines Designs will present a program "Interrogating your fabric."

February Day Meeting- Alberta's large tote.

February Night Meeting-Organizing your quilt room. Or anything else that needs it.

March 10- Linda Herren will work with Wool. Check on details.

March 16 Karen Combs- Workshop -Optical Illusions Cost $45, sign up soon...

April 30 -Quilt til you Wilt. Details will follow and be prepared to have your quilt photographed for the Cobb quilt show by Charlie.

Hospitality - Food! Food! Food! Who doesn't love food? We all have our favorites to nibble on -- during a TV show, while playing computer games, and of course to heal our broken hearts. Stop right now and think - what is your favorite nibbles? Now what food do you LOVE?

So for, "LOVE MONTH", February day meeting, bring the "Nibbles You Love" and share them with everyone there. So it looks like we will have a lot of things made out of CHOCOLATE! SMILE

Library News

Hellow Fellow Quilters; I would like to introduce to some and refresh the memory of others about a Quilting Novel Series. Our library is filled with many magazines and books for your use and perusal. However, we are starting the Jennifer Chiaverini Book Collection. These are wonderful quilting novels with awesome quilting patterns and an ongoing storyline.

The first novel is "The Quilter's Apprentice", which is now in our Library. "The Quilter's Apprentice" introduces us to the main characters whose lives thread throughout each novel. Characters Sarah & Matt, a young married couple, Sylvia Compson, our narrator and main character in all of the stories and Andrew who fits so perfectly... Explore the inheritance of a new home, the coming together of new friends and the forming of a quilt guild with history lessons and love stories weaved in the midst.

These books will make you smile, laugh and cry. Your curiosity will be piqued. You will see the similarities in your lives, quilting styles and preferences. Be the First to Read one of the First Three Novels in the Popular Series "An Elm Creek Quilts Sampler" and if you are like me listen to them on Audio while you quilt :)

Reviewed by Rita Lee

Publicity- the address for the Quilt Guild has been changed in the paper and other publications. We also have new business cards to hand out .

Hospital Quilts. Hanging now are quilts by Sandy Capazzi and Joyce Hill.

Raffle Tonight- Get your tickets for a wide ironing board . This is a covered board to lay atop your ironing board. Approx. 2 feet by 5 feet. Won by Denise Allee ! Congratulations.

Golden Scissors-- 9 Scissors, 5 pins

Sunshine - Kimberly Lauderoute and her family desperately need our prayers. Her husband has been very ill. For more details contact Denise Allee.

February and March Programs

February 10, 2011

We want to thank Albertha Brown for agreeing to present her quilted bag. Check the January newsletter for the supply list or you can download it from the website by clicking here.

February 24, 2011- Organizing 101 presented by Joyce Maxwell (information in January newsletter)

March 10, 2011

Working with Wool with Linda Herren: Linda will talk about and demonstrate the handling and use of wool. We'll break for lunch and come back for hands on. We will supply a kit with everything needed to do a small project, taking one to two hours.

Let me know if you have any questions.

March 24, 2011

"Quilties" with Robin Meyer will show us how to make small pins. She will provide all necessary supplies. Just show up and have fun. You will need to bring hand sewing supplies (needles, neutral thread, thimble, scissors)

April 14, 2011- Janet O'Brien -- Needles & Threads

Featured Member Susan Fisher

How long have you been quilting? Since 1988

Who taught you how to quilt? I learned in California in a quilting class taught by Diane Leighton.

What are your favorite quilting techniques? I like to piece quickly so love chain piecing but I also enjoy hand work, both appliqué and quilting. I especially like the math involved in planning a quilt.

What are your favorite colors to work with? I seem to go through phases of favorites but since most of my quilts are scrappy I guess I like all colors.

What are your favorite fabrics to work with? 99.9% of the time I use cottons.

What is your favorite quilt shop? I pop in and out of most of the local shops including Phyllis's but really look forward to visiting quilt shops in other cities and countries. Not only do I wind up with a wider variety in my stash but a yard of fabric is a much better souvenir than a T shirt!

If you sew by machine, what kind(s) do you use? I use a Janome 6600 at home and a Janome Gem at workshops. I still have the Singer Featherweight I sewed garments on in the 60s and a Bernina that's never quite worked right.

What inspires you to make a particular quilt? It could be anything from a pattern to a book to a quilt hanging in a show.

What is your favorite quilting book or pattern? I don't know that I have a favorite.

On average, how many quilts do you make in a year? I started to keep a photographic record by year of quilts completed and was surprised to count eighteen in 2010. However, I start a lot more than I finish each year! My UFOs are each in a separate plastic box and easily number in the dozens. I try to finish a least one of them each year and have now given myself permission to give up on those that deep down in my heart I know I won't ever finish. A couple of those end up in the Rauction every year.

Do you quilt your own quilts or do you send them out? I send most of them out, especially anything bed sized. I'll attempt to machine quilt, but it's not my sharpest skill.

What quilt-related item(s) are you working on right now? I've got two quilts for friends at the machine quilter's right now and another that I'm going to machine quilt myself after I finish the project that I started when my son was four. He's now almost 27.

What other hobbies do you have? I'm a voracious reader and movie goer. Although you wouldn't know it by looking at my yard, I'm a Master Gardener and volunteer at the Plant a Row for the Hungry located at the Smith-Gilbert Gardens in Kennesaw. I also love to travel.

Tell about one way that quilting has changed your life. In 1987 we moved from urban Southern California to rural Northern California. I don't think I've ever been more miserable. One day a woman I'd met at the park (our sons were the same age and had the same big wheels so became instant buddies) invited me to the quilt show put on annually by the local guild. I walked into that building, took one look and thought I'd died and gone to heaven. Somehow that town of 25,000 people had a quilt guild with nearly 300 members! I joined the guild that day and enjoyed every minute of it. I never did like living in that town so was beyond thrilled when my husband's job took him to Atlanta. Big change #2: In 1995 we moved to Kennesaw. The first week in Georgia I went to an East Cobb Quilt Guild meeting where I met Jean Ann Wright. She called me the next day, offered me a job and suddenly I found myself the Managing Editor of Quilt magazine, a position I held for the next nine years.

Are you on any committees with the CRQG? This year I'm the Georgia Quilt Council liaison.

Feel free to tell us more about yourself and your family. My husband Jim retired a few years ago and now spends most of his time on the golf course. We split our time between Kennesaw and the Florida panhandle. Jim likes to travel, too, so we make frequent trips to the west coast to visit family and try to take one Big Trip requiring a passport each year. Our son Jay is in grad school at UGA.

Bee News

Our January bee at the home of Dorene Bickford was so much fun. There were 19 of us there plus a friend of Dorene's from Maine. We had a wonderful soup and sandwich lunch with a special dessert and learned an easy way to install a zipper. Quilters were unsewing, sewing on bindings, doing embroidery and just getting to know one another better.

Thursday, February 17th, at 9:30 a.m. at the home of Jennie Hollis, 4209 Rocky Face Drive, Douglasville.

From Chapel Hill Road turn right on Anneewakee Road. Go about a mile and turn right on Rebel Trail Drive (across from the Muslim church). Go down Rebel Trail and turn right on Rocky Face Drive. Jennie's is the green house on the corner of Rocky Face and Chickasaw.

There will be a bee on the mail box. Jennie is planning a Valentine's Day brunch.

Be sure to call Jennie (770.942.9798) or email (6jrholis@gmail.com) her to let her know you will be there.

March Bee will be at Irene Gardners

April Bee will be at Joyce Hill's. More details to follow.

Ways and Means

Congratulations to Denise Allee who won the night meeting raffle.

She won the large ironing board. The raffle raised $72.

We challenge each of the Guild members to reach higher and strive to make 2011 the best year ever. Try new ideas, go out on a limb to put those ideas into practice, and be willing to work to implement new "ways and means" of reaching our goals. It's time for each of us to stand up and volunteer to chair or work on a committee; it's time to say, "I have a great idea—please let me try!" Only if we step up to meet the new challenges that face us each year will we improve and make ours a more enjoyable, exciting set of opportunities to share.

Coombs Workshop

Registration for all workshops is open, (although membership in the Georgia Quilt Council is recommended) on a first come, first served basis.

Ten spaces are set aside for Cherokee Rose, because we are the host guild.

Class size is limited to 20 students per class.

Be sure to include your check with your registration form; you will not have a space reserved until payment is received.

You will be sent a supply list as acknowledgement of your registration. Each workshop is suitable for quilters of all skill levels. Registration fee includes the project pattern. Registration deadline is March 8, 2011.

Patchwork Illusions -Wednesday, March 16, 2011, 10 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.
Douglasville Conference Center, 6701 Church Street, Douglasville, GA 30135

Visual depth has fascinated artists for centuries. Karen has developed a quick and easy rotary technique that allows you to make quilts with a 3-D look. In the class, you will learn how to create quilts shown in Gallery 3 on the web site. Frankly, this is Karen's favorite class because it is so easy to create truly amazing quilts of illusion. Let Karen share her secrets, so you may become a master of illusions! www.karencombs.com

Karen will also teach this same workshop the next day in Cartersville and on Friday, she will teach "Christmas Cube" in Cumming. For more information on these workshops, visit the Georgia Quilt Council website at www.georgiaguiltsociety.com.

Library News

We are in the process of updating the library catalog. If anyone has any books out from last year, you may return them to Jennie Hollis or Rita Lee. We need to catalog all the books to keep the catalog current.

Community Service

Get your motors running...heading down the highways!! Oh, excuse me! My other hobby was taking over my brain for a few minutes. I guess with all the inclement weather I have a little cabin fever! Well, it is still time to get your motors running...your sewing machine motors that is as we kick off another year of community service. I am pleased to announce we will be doing small (lap size) quilts for the Head Start program of Douglas Co. This program helps prepare 4 & 5 yr olds for kindergarten and they are eligible for the program in two ways. The family must be at poverty level or below or there be a disability. Douglas Co. currently has 141 children enrolled in this program. The director was very willing to give me all the information I needed and only works with the program here in Douglas Co. She assured me the quilts will go to the "neediest of the needy" and will definitely stay in our county. Our guild has done -on average- 25 quilts the past 2 years, so based on that we will commit to 25 quilts for Head Start. In the past you have always surprised me with your willingness to go above and beyond. With the need being so large this time and kids being the recipients, what are you willing to do?

Publicity News

The quilts displayed at the hospital for the first quarter are from Joyce Hill and Sandy Capazzi. New CRQG business cards(new meeting place) are printed and will be distributed at the next meetings. Local newspapers including the Chapel Hill News and Views have been contacted about our new meeting location. I also have contacted the Georgia Quilt Council to request the same correction to their web site. Our display at the Douglas County Library will be for the month of November.
