President's Message

The R'auktion was a great success.

It brought in about $740 and Dori sold two adds for additional $70 !!

There was some spirited bidding going on.

Thanks so much to Dori Holt and Carolyn Chapman who coordinated the setup and the execution. Thanks to Charlene Shanks for helping me haul the stuff from my basement to Hunter Park. We filled her truck bed and my daughter's large trunk. Charlene also hauled home the extra empty boxes. Linda Jones, Denise Allee, Irene Gardner and Annie Kellum helped fill the boxes. Only took us 1hr 45 minutes.

Dori and Carolyn had gotten lots of wonderful things donated: $100 off plumber's fee, $25 to Mexican Restaurant; fabric from quilt shops, etc. I think there were about 20 items raffled and several door prizes.

Libby Armstrong has agreed to be Ways and Means Chairman next year – thank you so much, Libby.

Thank you to all those who volunteered to handle the raffle each month in 2011. We did pretty well without a chairman for Ways and Means but it will be much easier with Libby as chairman next year.

On the proposed by-law changes. A total of 43 people voted in both October meetings. 28 voted YES to all the proposed changes. 15 voted NO to at least one change. According to the by-laws, a simple majority of those voting is all that is required. Therefore all the proposed changes have been accepted and the by-laws will be updated in the next membership packet.

Lorene and Bobbie Brooks have been working on getting donations for our Christmas Party Dec 1. Tickets are $20. Bring your money to the next meeting.

CHEROKEE ROSE QUILTERS GUILD

Minutes of the October Day Meeting, October 13, 2011

Submitted By Phyllis Carpenter, Day Secretary

The meeting was opened by Vice President Dori Holt.

Due to an extended business meeting it was determined to have our program first.

Our program was a presentation by Ben Hollingsworth's trunk show entitled "My Life Outside the Box". He shared his many award winning original quilts and a variety of heritage quilts.

Following the program we had a break where everyone shared the "pies" provided by everyone.

The following announcements were offered:

- October birthdays were recognized.
- Raffle for October will be a raffle of the strip blocks assembled by Broach Winsley. Also zipper pouches are available.
- November goodies will be "soups"

There was a correction of the September day minutes reflecting that it was Sarah Sorenson presenting the Saturday workshop.

Publicity

Information about our guild including the challenge quilts and community service will be on display at the Douglas County Library on Selman Dr. throughout the month of November. Also, on display at Wellstar Douglas are quilts made by our fellow members, Diane Johnson and Phyllis Carpenter. Their quilts will hang at the hospital until the end of this year. Try to visit both locations sometime in the next month and admire some of the lovely work done by our quilters. We have more business cards available for you to pick up from Linda Jones. Please get a couple of them from her at any of the meetings and have them handy if you run into someone who would like to visit us and learn more about our group!
