President's Message

By now, I'm sure everyone is in full swing for Christmas, Hanukkah, or what ever holiday plans you may have. I hope that everyone enjoyed a delicious Thanksgiving dinner with loved ones.

November was full of fun! Dorene Thornton organized our Fall Fashion Show where several of our members modeled purses, vests, jackets and more. Dorene, of course, out blinged us all but she awarded a prize to Denise Allee for her blingy imaginative outfits. It's hard to explain...you just had to be there! But all had a lot of fun.

Albertha was our night program, showing us how to make rosettes to add decoration to any number of items. I even heard someone talking about using a rosette in the middle of a block and making an entire quilt of "rosette blocks". Many of us had a busy time "shopping" before the meeting from the beautiful fabrics brought in by Phyllis Smith. What a treat!

The Nominating Committee presented the slate of officers for 2013 and passed out ballots for members to vote at both meetings. Emma Parker said that the vote was unanimous in accepting the slate as presented. Thank you for allowing me another year as President. I look forward to working with Libby Armstrong as Vice President, Patti Howell as Secretary Days, Broach Winsley as Secretary Nights and continuing with Tina Corbitt as Treasurer. Again, I deeply appreciate Emma Parker, Robin Meyer and Annie Kellum for their work and even filling most of the committee chairs. I look forward to working with all of those who volunteered or accepted, as well. I think we have an exciting year ahead in 2013 and I hope that each of you will be a part of it. Looking back at CRQG for 2012, I feel quite satisfied and blessed.

Each of you has done your best to help make 2012 a success for the guild. We've learned new techniques, had great speakers, seen the hidden talents of many of our members, and the list goes on. I have been so pleased to see the caring and fellowship among our members, too. You are truly a wonderful group of people and I am proud to be a part of Cherokee Rose.

I hope to see all, or at least most, of you at the Christmas party. I know it will be an evening of good food, good company and lots of fun!

So, to each of you - Merry Christmas, Happy Hanukkah, Happy Holidays. We'll see you in 2013!

Dori Holt
