President's Message

As we come into December, I want to wish everyone a Merry Christmas, a Happy Hanukah and Happy Holidays.

Since this is the last newsletter for the year, I will keep it short. It has been another great year for Cherokee Rose and the credit belongs to each and every one of you.

Alas, it is time for the proverbial "swan song". I have stood up in front of all of you presiding over meetings for the last 4 years; 2 years at the day meetings and 2 years at the night meetings. It will seem strange to be seated during the business meetings in 2014! HA HA. I thank you for the opportunity to have served you as Vice President and President since 2010.

I appreciate your trust and support more than you know. More treasured are the friendships that have built over that time. As we enter into a new year, I know that Cherokee Rose will continue to be the fine organization that it has always been.

I want to thank the officers of 2013: Libby Armstrong - Vice President, Patti Howell - Day Secretary, Broach Winsley - Night Secretary and Tina Corbitt - Treasurer. It has been a pleasure working with you ladies. I could not have done it without your help and assistance. Also, I am excited that Tina has moved from Treasurer (for the past 4-5 years) to President for 2014. I know she and the new officers will do their best to serve you, too.

Thank you, too, to each and every person who served on committees in 2013. Your time and dedication has helped keep our guild strong and growing.

I hope to see all of you at our Christmas party on December 5. If you can't make it, then we'll see each other in January!

God bless each of you and your families during this holiday season

Community Service

The pillow cases were delivered to the nursing home by Emma Parker, Linda Jones, Emily Poole and Annie Kellum on Thursday, November 21. We had a fun visit with the residents.

Thank to all of you who helped make it possible for all 246 residents to get a pillowcase. It was funny to hear a couple of roommates saying "mine is prettier than yours". It does a heart good to make someone happy with so little, so thanks again

Please contact Annie Kellum (770-851-1096, anniekell@yahoo.com) or Emma Parker (770-489-0550, pemma53@yahoo.com) with any questions or comments.

CRQG Program News

The program committee would like to thank Irene Gardner for stepping in at the last minute. She did a wonderful job with the coiled bowls program. Doreen Thornton's originally scheduled program on small scraps was moved to February 13th. So keep saving those smallest of scraps and she will show us some creative ways of what to do with small pieces of fabric.

In January, we have two programs planned to get your creative juices flowing in the new year. At our day meeting, January 9th, Sarah Sorenson will be demonstrating the strip tube ruler from Cozy Quilt Designs. This ruler gives you many creative options of what to do with jelly rolls. Pickleweed's is following up this presentation with a class the following Saturday.

Our January 23rd night program is a trunk show presented by our very own Albertha Brown. She is very talented and creative, as you will see. You will not want to miss this program!

Most of next year's programs are planned and posted on the website. So please check these out and put the two Saturday workshops on your calendar.

Saturday Stitch-In

We had a wonderful day sewing on November 3, the last Saturday Stitch-In of 2013. 26 members and friends attended, bringing projects, food, and a smile! We laughed, sewed, ate, laughed, sewed, ate.... well, you get the idea!

Here's a photo of the modern crazy patch blocks we made. The idea is to put them into a quilt that will be donated to Ways and Means for a raffle or for the next R'auction. Setting ideas are welcome! Send them to Robin Meyer at robinmeyerga@yahoo.com. Photos or links to photos would be best. More photos of the day are shown below and on the next page.

If you have any questions, contact Robin Meyer at robinmeyerga@yahoo.com or (770) 948-5394.

are working hard. ↓

← Spoiler Alert! Look for these and the seamstress later in this newsletter

← While Tina Corbitt and Dori
Holt, not so much, haha!

Of course, it's
Annie Kellum's! →

Ann Groves' R' auction coup!

← Robin Meyer teaches class.

Speaking of Robin, this is what she worked on when she wasn't teaching. →

What do you know? Phyllis Smith doesn't just sell fabric...she uses it as well, and the result is absolutely gorgeous!

Minutes: CROG Day Meeting, November 14, 2013

Meeting was called to order by Libby Armstrong, VP.

Treasurer: We have $6,744.21 in the bank.

Librarian: We have several new books in the Library.

Sunshine: - Emma Parker's husband is in the hospital with pneumonia.
- Doreen Thornton's mother is not doing very well and Doreen has gone to Penn to be with her.
- Royce Kunz (former member) is doing very well with chemo

Ways and Means: We have patterns for $1 each. Also you can purchase a chance to win a ticket for the Christmas Dinner. The total made on the R'auktion was $1589.

Bee Keeper: The January meeting will be held at Broach's house.

Community Service: They will be distributing the pillowcases to the nursing home next Thursday at 9:30 am

GA Quilt Council: It was announced about the Quilt Show to be held in Savannah in March of next year. We can enter a group of quilts for display only. They are in need of quilts to hang.

Christmas Party: We need to purchase tickets for the dinner.

Membership: We have 23 members present and one visitor.

New Business: - The Hunter Park Center has been designated as the Ike Owings Center and we need to direct people to this change.

- Jane Brownlow has requested that perhaps our Guild would have some members that would be willing to work at the Museum in Carrolton. The number is 770 834-7847 if you would like to help staff the museum. It is only open three days a week.

Nominating Committee: A ballot was passed out for members to vote on the officers for next year. We will also be taking a vote at the night meeting.

Show and Tell: Broach Winsley, Bev Mahle and Marge Frost had quilts to show.

Respectfully submitted,

Patti Howell

Day Secretary

Minutes: CROG Night Meeting, November 21, 2013

Dori Holt called the meeting to order.

Linda Herren will teach hand appliqué tonight.

There were no corrections to the minutes.

Libby Armstrong, VP, reported that the community center's name has been changed to the Ike Owen Community Center at Hunter Park. We need to change our business cards.

Irene Gardner, Historian, reported that she had items for our historical record.

Broach Winsley, Librarian, talked about some new books she took from the R'auktion.

Linda Jones, Programs Chairman, said that next year's programs are on the web site as are two workshops. January will be strip tube ruler demo by Sarah Sorenson. Night will be Albertha's trunk show.

Sunshine: Caryl Knox has been sick with bronchitis; Emma Parker husband has pneumonia, but is home; Barbara Briggs (former member) has breast cancer. She has had chemo and is about to start radiation; Jennie Hollis' husband got a pacemaker; Sherry Pell is undergoing chemo and has lost her hair; Royce Kunz (former member) is taking chemo and working; Jackie Delgado's (former member) husband died; Vickie Hecht's friend, Jim, drove out from under an underpass right into a tornado. It picked up his 18-wheeler 8-feet and dropped it. Jim had some cuts and bruises, but is ok; Mary Graham had Kathy Eck out shopping recently. Both are former members and Kathy has cancer.

Membership: 27 members including Rachel and Charlie Phaneuf who rejoined. Mildred Adams won fat quarters; door prize winners were Linda Herren, Charlie Phaneuf, Dawn Feist and Annie Kellum.

Ways and Means did a great job this year. R'auktion earned more than ever before. Need chairman for next year. Two drawings tonight.

January 2014 Bee will be at Broach's house. Lunch will be provided: Fat Flush Soup. RSVP to 770 577 0755.

Christmas Party: Dec 5 at 6:00. Bring items for the food pantry.

Treasurer report: Tina Corbitt reported that we have $7849.21 and need to pay last 6 months rent for Hunter Park.

Community Service: Emma Parker, Linda Jones, Annie Kellum, and Emily Pool took pillow cases to nursing/rehab home and received a warm welcome.

Dawn Feist, Photographer, had no report and offered to give job back to Charlie.

GA Quilt Council will have August retreat. Web site is up. Mancuso Quilt show last week in March in Savannah. They are looking for quilts to display; submit in January.

Election of new officers was held. New officers are: President, Tina Corbitt; VP, Jennie Hollis; Treasurer, Bev Mahle; Day Secretary Patti Howell and Night Secretary, Dori Holt.

The meeting was adjourned after show and tell.

Respectfully submitted,

Broach Winsley

Night secretary

I want this pattern,
Denise Adams!
Just gorgeous...

A quilt ↑ AND a runner ↓, from the same fabric?! A “Circle of Nine” quilt ↓, also? Linda Jones is putting us all to shame! (And, who IS she talking to?)

A tisket, a tasket, Irene Gardner made a basket...so did Tina Corbitt...and what’s this? Gail Ford did, too!

November Night Meeting Show and Tell (cont'd)

Just alike, but different?
Twin sisters
← Irene Garner and Jennie Hollis →
share different perspectives
on the same pattern.

Erna Kriigel "strips"
for us, lol!

Janice Reno
Hmmm....didn't we already see these? Oh, yeah, she did these at the SSI!

Broach Winsley
gets artistic with this dear
deer quilt
(sorry, couldn't resist!)

2014 Officers
