President's Message

Hello, everyone!

Thank you to everyone who has already committed to a position next year, it makes the process run much smoother. There are a few who are still thinking and some who have yet to come forward. We have several positions open, so Vickie Hecht or myself will be contacting members by phone to complete the list of volunteers. Have faith you will do a good job and volunteer.

It was very difficult to vote for the best three challenge quilts. Everyone did a great job and used their fabric creatively. Some techniques were used that we don't see very often so they were particularly inspiring. Congratulations to the winners, spend your prize wisely. LOL

Although I did not attend the day class when Emma demonstrated the Log Cabin Trim Tool, I am sure the attendees are looking forward to making a quilt with this tool. Maybe Emma will bring it to the Stitch-In and give a demonstration. It might be the next addition to my collection. HEHE!

In October, the day meeting will be how to make a vest with ties. Or you can bring fabric from your stash and Marge Frost will show you how to use it for the vest instead of ties. Sounds interesting, can't wait to see who has a stash of ties!

Wow, it's that time of year again. Get out your checkbook or bring cash to the October night meeting. The R'auction is the place to bid on fabric and notions or even some items near completion...you never know what will be donated! This is where you come in: before the event, please clean out your stash, sewing related items, even UFO's you have lost interest in. The more the merrier. And if you can come sort and box items before the big event, please contact Anne Groves. More information follows later in this newsletter.

Thank you and have a nice day!

Bee News

Our September bee was at Pickleweeds Quilt Shop. Thanks to Joany Orsi and her team for making us feel welcome!

Our last bee of 2014* will be 10/16 at Erna Kriigel's, 568 Kings Walk, Douglasville, GA 30134. She will not be serving lunch, but please send her an RSVP so she'll have an idea of how many to expect:

ekriigel@gmail.com, 404-226-7146.

There are no bees in November or December due to the holidays.*

Hospitality

It's October! Apples, pumpkins, changing leaves, bonfires and fall festivals. We will celebrate this amazing time of year with Octoberfest at this month's day meeting on 10/9. Join us for food, frivolity and fun!

As always, you may bring a snack to any meeting, day or night, if you wish. It must be a finger food requiring only a plate or napkin (if you bring something requiring anything else, you need to supply it). Let me know before, if possible, so I can make sure stuff is out. Plan to stay and clean up and take your leftovers!

Please continue to bring your own beverage in a covered cup or bottle.

Community Service

The Cherokee Rose Quilt Guild is seeking quilts for children ages 4 to 6. The quilts will be given to children in the Douglas County Head Start program in early December. Each quilt must measure at least 40" x 50" so the children will be fully covered from the cold.

The quilts we have collected so far demonstrate the guild's creativity with a delightful variety of colors and fabric sure to please each youngster. Our goal as a group is to contribute 50 quilts by the end of November. At the end of August, we were almost half-way to our goal, so keep them coming!

Head Start prepares preschool children for the future. They teach health and nutrition and seek to prepare children for success in public school. If you would like to help bring warmth and comfort to a deserving child, please make a quilt to deliver by the end of November.

For questions, please contact Emily Poole at 678.715.1280, dnnpool@comcast.net or Marge Frost at 770.947.6376, margefrost@comcast.net.

It's Here...R'auktion!

Thursday, 10/23/14 @ 7:00pm

Ike Owings Community Room • Hunter Park

It's no too late to bring your items for the R'auktion!

All items should be usable - no magazines. They can be cotton fabrics appropriate for quilting, fat quarters, scraps, books, patterns, kits, notions, rulers, machines, quilt frames, quilts, quilt tops, orphan blocks, unfinished items, etc. Anything that is quilting or sewing related.

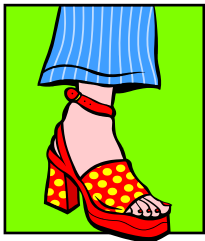

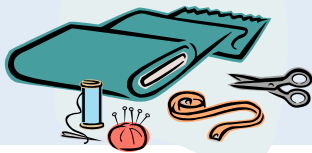

If you are new to the guild, here are the details:

Guild members gather all the items they no longer want and donate them for the R'auktion. There is an auctioneer and members bid on the items they would like to win. Highest bid wins. There are also items that are raffled (you buy tickets). All proceeds to go the Guild Treasury.

Denise Allee will collect items for Ann Groves at the day meeting on 10/9 or you can contact Ann directly to arrange to get your items to them prior to day of the R'auktion.

If you are going to be helping with setup, bring your items that morning.

For additional information, contact Ann Groves, 770-942-1214, wi4fey@gmail.com.

Walk a mile in my shoes, you'll end up at the Quilt Shop!

Saturday Stitch-In

November 8th from 9:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. will be the second 2014 Cherokee Rose Stitch-In in the ballroom in the Ike Owings Community Center at Hunter Park. Plan your projects, bring your machine and plan to spend a day quilting and quilting and quilting!!! The cost is just $10.

We'll be there from 9:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m., but YOU come when you can and stay as long as you can. Bring your own lunch and we will have a potluck dinner around 5:00pm., convenient for day and evening quilters. The Guild will supply paper goods.

New to this Saturday Stitch In is "Gizmo Demos". Attendees are asked to bring that one thing you just can't do without, or the new thing you just bought that you think is going to transform your quilting. Each quilter is asked to demonstrate their gizmo – for just a few minutes – so that everyone else can learn about it too!

This is also a great time to get advice on a project, figure out a new pattern or technique, or just get a bunch of stuff sewn while chatting with your friends. New to the Guild? There isn't a better way to get to know other members. Saturday Stitch-In works for everyone!

Here is what you need to bring:

- Your sewing projects, machine, extension cord, and supplies. (Also, bring a light for detailed work and an extra table if you have one.)
- Lunch
- Covered dish for dinner
- $10 fee
- A smile!

If you have any questions, contact Robin Meyer at robinmeyerga@yahoo.com or 770 948-5394.

CRQG Program News

- At our October 9 day meeting, Marge Frost will teach us how to use old neckties to make a vest! Here are some tips that will help us prepare for the Necktie Vest:

- Find a pattern you like. It should not have any darts or princess style seams because you will want to lay the necktie strips on a flat muslin base.
- It is a good idea to make a muslin sample to be sure of fit, length etc.
- You will want to have the neckties taken apart before you come to the meeting, as the process can be a bit tedious. By the way, you do not have to use ties! Any mix of fabric strips will work. And, you can also use the technique to create a great looking pillow.

For the meeting, you need to bring the following:

- Muslin base for front parts of vest.
- Sewing machine, thread, scissors...the usual sewing accessories.
- Cutting mats, ruler (12" or more, but you won't need a big one), rotary cutter
- Ironing equipment

Do not expect to complete this project at the class. You will get a great start. Plan to bring your lunch and stay until 2:00pm.

- Our October 23 night meeting is our annual R'auktion. This the biggest fundraiser for the guild each year and where we get the biggest part of our operating budget in the coming year. Be sure to bring your dollars and prepare to take home some great bargains and have FUN!
- Finally, at our November 13 day meeting, Annie Kellum and Linda Jones will be teaching how to use the Deb Tucker Lemoyne Star ruler. Joany Orsi will give our members a 20% discount on the ruler if you buy it from Pickleweeds Quilt Shop. In order for her to have enough rulers in stock, we are asking all members who want a ruler to sign a list at one of the October meetings. Your cost for the ruler with the discount will be $24.50.

Christmas Party 2014

Planning continues toward making this a fun time for all! The date is Thursday, Dec. 4 at 7:00 pm at Atlanta's Finest Catering. Tickets are $20 each and should be purchased by the night meeting on Nov. 20.

Don't forget you may start the Christmas Layaway Plan at anytime. Because other festivities in your life at the same time might be clamoring for your attention and/or you need to budget your dollars, we are more than willing to take them in advance to help out with any stress. Just bring it on, sign up and we will keep tabs for you.

We have Two Drawings going on...one for a Ticket (a $20.00 value) and the other for a beautiful

Christmas Tree crafted by our own Brenda Senn and on display at the regular meetings now through the Nov. 20 night meeting. Tickets are a $1.00 each and placed in the jars as noted. The lucky winner of the free ticket will receive a refund of your ticket price if you've already paid.

Finally, we'll have an "Ugly (Christmas) Sweater" contest at the party, so be thinking ahead to which one you will wear (because, if you're of a certain age, you'll no doubt have several!)

For questions, contact Caryl Knox, 770-942-0003, carylknex@bellsouth.net.

Minutes: CROG Day Meeting, September 11, 2014

Meeting was called to order by Vice President.

MINUTES – A correction was made to previous minutes. It was reported that we could purchase comic book cards for storing our fabric at Kroger. This should have been Randy's Musicland and Comic store in the Kroger Center on Hwy. 5.

TREASURER - Report was given.

BIRTHDAYS - Were recognized.

PROGRAMS - Today's program will be presented by Emma Parker on the Log Cabin trim tool.

Challenge quilts will be presented at the Sept. night meeting.

At the next day meeting Marg Frost will be showing us how to make a vest using men's ties or 2 1/3 inch fabric strips. We can purchase old ties at local thrift stores. Remember the ties should be opened before meeting.

QUILT MUSEUM - There is a display of Civil War quilts this month.

LIBRARIAN - Books are for sale or we can check out books.

MEMBERSHIP - We had 26 members present and 2 visitors. Naomi Ryan and Melissa Swanner. Door prizes were given out.

SUNSHINE - Joan Hardy and Susan Fisher both have broken bones, but are on the mend.

COMMUNITY SERVICE - We are making quilts for Head Start Kids. The quilts should be approximately 40 x 50 in size and need to be turned in by Dec 1. At present we have 25 quilts and are committed for 50.

CHRISTMAS PARTY - We will have the party at Atlanta's Finest on December 4. This is the first Thursday of the month. We will have a raffle quilt and there will be many door prizes. We will also have an ugly sweater contest. See Caryl Knox about this.

R'AUCTION - This will be the night meeting in October and we need to have any items turned in.

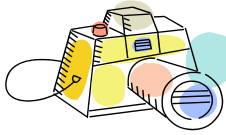

NEW BUSINESS - We discussed the hanging of quilts at the Woodie Fite Center. This would be inside. We will be celebrating our 25th year of the quilt guild. We also voted on moving the monthly BEE meeting to Pickleweeds in 2015. This would be every month at the same location and would be more parking and more room.

Minutes: CROG Night Meeting, September 25, 2014

Tina called the meeting to order at 7:00pm.

Minutes were accepted as printed.

September birthdays were recognized. (Mildred Adams celebrated 101 years!)

Treasurer: $6,208.52 in the bank.

Bee Keeper: October Bee will be at the home of Erna Kriigel.

Christmas Party: You can buy raffle tickets for a ticket for dinner and tickets for a Christmas tree made by Brenda Senn. There will be an "Ugly Sweater" contest at the party. A lay-away is available to buy your dinner ticket. If you have paid for the party and win the raffle for the dinner, your $20 will be refunded to you.

Community Service: We have reached the half way mark of 25 quilts. We need a total of 50 for Project Head Start by the night meeting in November.

Golden Scissors: Several Show and Tell quilts were made for Community Service.

Georgia Quilt Council: No Report.

Hospitality: No Report.

Library: Quilting novels for sale. See Broach Winsley.

Membership: 36 members were in attendance and 2 visitors present. Door prize winners were Albertha Brown and Mildred Adams.

Newsletter: Please get your articles in by 12:00pm on Saturday after the night meeting.

Photographer: No Report.

Programs: Marge Frost will be doing the program at the October day meeting on making Neck Tie Vests. Check the website for supplies and details. The October night meeting will be the R'auction.

Saturday Stitch-In: November 8, 9:00am - 9:00pm or any time in between. Please bring extension cords if you have them, as the tables along the wall get taken first! Think of your favorite "trick" or gadget and let Robin know if you would like to do a "Gizmo Demo" during the day. Also, let her know what you will be bringing for the potluck.

Sunshine: Irene saw Carolyn Chapman earlier in the week and found out that Carolyn has been diagnosed with Lupus. (Please let Irene know if you or someone else needs a little ray of sunshine.)

Telephone: No Report.

Ways & Means: Ann Groves asked that you get your items, in good or better used condition, to Denise Allee for the R'auction. Also, bring lots of money!!! (This is our biggest fund raiser of the year!!) If you have volunteered to help set up the day of R'auction, Ann or Denise will be contacting you.

Challenge Quilt: Libby re-introduced the challenge fabric so that all could see what was handed out. Participation was good and showed off the imagination and creativity of our members. The membership voted on the quilts and the results were as follows: 1st Place: Jill Stroer, 2nd Place: Linda Jones, 3rd Place: Rachel Phaneuf.
