Vice-Presidents Message

It's after midnight on the day of our CR Thursday night guild meeting. I sent Diane a copy of the agenda last Sunday just in case I didn't get back from Nebraska in time. I attended my last uncle's funeral Tuesday. Uncle Bob was my mom's only brother. He was soooooooooo special to me. The funeral service was held in the church where he was organist for over 30 years, where he was married, where Mom and Dad were married, where his four boys and I were baptized and where my mom's funeral was two years ago and Dad's was 13 years ago next month and mom's folks and mom's maternal grandparents were married and buried.

It's in the heart of Nebraska's corn and cow country and where my little girl's heart still resides. My mom's folks place is now one solid field of corn. The home place and barn and trees are all gone. But taking off in the little 15 seat plane looked just like the fields Diane quilted a week ago and my broken heart was comforted.

Now, what does all this have to do with quilting, you ask? It's my heart and I know your hearts that often dictate what and when we quilt certain things. . .like the happy birth of a new baby. I've been working on four Oceanwave quilts since my mom died. The blocks are composed of her stash, my stash and fabric I bought when I was home to bury her. There are many many tears on that fabric, and when they are finally finished in my three girls' favorite colors, I'm sure that there will be some spots visible from all the tears. But, those are therapeutic tears and I am reminded how grateful I am of the greatest gift my mom gave me besides my life: she taught me to sew.

The quilting story for this funeral trip to Nebraska I will share verbally Thursday night with you all. It's only in cow and corn country in a little town ten miles from Mom's grave where you can walk into the restaurant next door to the ONLY quilt for 60 miles in each direction at 7:15 AM on your way to the airport and have the waitress call the quilt shop owner and tell her I'm from Atlanta and am a fabriholic AND could she open the quilt shop earlier than 10 AM and the quilt shop owner says, "I'll be down within the hour IF she can wait that long to open up with my little 4 year old boy." And, she was there within the hour.

I found two fabrics with saddles on it that I've been looking for for even years! Where else could you do this? And, the store owner would be delighted to do it ? ! ? ! The fabric of our lives is woven through happy times and sad times, and as I get older, the sad times come closer together more frequently. But, as the pastor said, "Today we mourn for our loss, but tomorrow we must rejoice as Bob is where he lived to be." phyl

Day Meeting Minutes

Day Meeting Minutes May 10, 2007

Quilters Guild

Vice President Phyl Schiwal called the meeting to order with a smile. Robin Meyer moved to approve the minutes of the April day meeting as published, Doreen Thornton seconded the motion, and it was approved unanimously. Phyl wished a happy birthday to those with birthdays in May.

Committee Reports:

Treasurer — Irene: current balance is $3,942.99.

Programs — Patti: Today's program is on screen printing by Hallie O'Kelley. Lunch will follow the program and then a screen printing workshop. Robin Meyer: The May night meeting will be a program on photographic kaleidoscopes by Holly Anderson. Dorene Thornton: The June day meeting will be a picnic at Hunter Park with a program by Denise on screen printing. We will order Chick-fil-A for lunch. The June night meeting will be quilt camp.

Membership — Denise: 34 members and two visitors were present. AnnMarie won the black and white fat quarter lottery. Next month's fat quarters will be yellow. Door prizes were awarded. Denise reminded us to take a look at the pictures and take the ones that belong to us.

Newsletter — Joany: Handouts from the Pat Wys program are available. Items for June newsletter due May 31st.

Publicity — Rachel trying to make contact with Quilters Travel Companion to have us included in next edition.

Ways and Means — Pat: Book, 501 Quilt Blocks, is today's drawing. We have cookbooks and pins available. Linda: Tote bags will be shipped today and available at the night meeting.

Historian — Phyl: Patti Howell will be day historian liaison.

Librarian — Diane: still accepting stencils for the library.

Sunshine — Phyl: Jessie had a fall after QTYW.

Beekeeper — Carolyn: May will be a mystery trip.

Community Service — Sandra: There have been 62 walker totes already turned in. Deadline is the July night meeting.

Quilt 'til You Wilt — Phyl: great success.

Old Business — Phyl: Bag has been donated for our door prize for the October Georgia Quilt Council meeting. We are to bring quilt-related items to fill it up.

New Business — Susan Fisher: Brought quilt and tickets for new raffle quilt for the Georgia Quilt Museum.

Show and Tell — Golden Scissors: Rachel (2), Rita, Patti, Robin M., AnnMarie, Ellen and Albertha. Pins: Rachel, Robin M. (2), Irene, Phyllis (2), Louise and Joyce.

The meeting was adjourned for the program.

Respectfully submitted,

Night Meeting Minutes

Night Meeting Minutes, May 24, 2007

Quilters Guild

Phyl called the meeting to order. Ted moved to approve the minutes of the April night meeting as published, Queen seconded the motion and the April minutes were approved unanimously. Phyl congratulated those with May birthdays.

Committee Reports:

Treasurer — Irene gave our current balance as $3,442.89.

Membership — Joyce Trew: There are 18 members and two visitors present. Next month's fat quarter lottery will be yellow. This month's black and whites were won by Debbie Hirschman. Door prizes were given out.

Hospitality — Debbie Hirschman: Thanks to those who provided refreshments. If you sign up for refreshments and something comes up that you can't make it, please contact someone to take your place. Robin: We will order from Chick-fil-A for the June day meeting picnic.

Programs — Robin: Tonight's meeting will be a program on kaleidoscope quilts by Holly Anderson. The June day meeting will be a picnic at Hunter's Park with a program on sun printing by Denise. The June night meeting will be our quilt camp.

Ways and Means — Linda Johnston: Tote bags should be available by the day meeting. She has requested batting from the Warm Company to be used for community service quilts. She has also completed the paperwork to request a grant from Wal-Mart. Pat Oliver: Tonight's raffle will be Perfect Quilt Spaces. A Fresh Look at Seasonal Quilts will be raffled at the June day meeting. We have pins and cookbooks and the scrap basket is back by popular demand. Phyllis: Will we have a table at fall convention to sell items? Already reserved. She will take items to convention. She thanked guild for purchasing fat quarters. Guild receives 10% from those purchases as well as sales at her home.

Librarian — Yvonne Smith: Will write a column for the newsletter re books in library. Diane Johnson: Pastor has approved a new cabinet for our library.

Sunshine — Caryl had a setback. She had pneumonia, another infection and another surgery. She is at home now. Phyl's uncle in Nebraska died.

Beekeeper — Carolyn: June 21st bee will be a mystery trip with lunch out. Meet at Lee Road at 9:00 am. Let Carolyn know if you will be attending so she can make reservations for lunch. July bee will be at Kathy Eck's home. Need hostesses for August and September.

Community Service — Sandra Wilson: We have 65 walker totes already turned in. The deadline for the walker totes is the July night meeting.

Show and Tell — Diane Johnson (scissors), Robin, Susan, Phyllis, Ann and Kimberly.

After Show and Tell, the meeting was adjourned for the program.

Respectfully submitted, Sandra Wilson for Joy Wegand

Georgia Quilt Council

The Georgia Quilt Council's new Crazy Quilt Challenge Tour opens July 1 in Blue Ridge at the Blue Ridge Mountain Arts Courtroom Gallery.

The exhibit runs through July 31.

This is the closest location to Douglas County until mid-2008, so make plans now to visit Blue Ridge (there are two great quilt shops there and lots of other shopping opportunities, too).

Call 706 632-2144 or visit www.brmaa.net for more information. Photos of the quilts are at www.georgiaquiltcouncil.com, but you need to see these quilts in person to appreciate the incredible stitching and design.

Under the needle

Under The Needle is a portable and web-based sewing notions business.

We attend quilt shows, festivals, craft fairs and guild meetings through-out the south.

Our inventory consists of a wide range of notions, gift items, books, patterns, pin cushions, thread, lapel pins, and jewelry.

We also carry a variety of vintage sewing notions including quilt books and quilting magazines.
